[41] The Imam Gives Admonition To Both Members Of The Couple While Carrying Out The Measures Of Li'an

3470- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: I was asked about such of the couple as involved in Li'an during the caliphate of Ibn Az-Zubair: should they be parted? I did not know what to say. I left my sitting place and went direct to the house of Ibn Umar and said: "O Abu Abd Ar-Rahman! Should such of the couple as involved in Li'an be parted?" he said: "Yes, Glorified be Allah! The first to ask about that was so and so, the son of so and so, who said: "O Messenger of Allah! Tell me: if anyone of us sees his wife committing adultery: (what should he do?) if he speaks, it will be a grievous matter; and if he keeps silent, he will keep silent from a matter similar in seriousness." He (the Prophet) gave no reply to him. Some time later, he came to him and he told him: "I was put to trial pertaining to the same matter about which I asked you earlier." On that occasion Allah Almighty revealed: "And for those who launch a charge against their spouses, and have (in support) no evidence but their own, their solitary evidence (can be received) if they bear witness four times (with an oath) by Allah that they are solemnly telling the truth; And the fifth (oath) (should be) that they solemnly invoke the curse of Allah on themselves if they tell a lie. But it would avert the punishment from the wife, if she bears witness four times (with an oath) by Allah, that (her husband) is telling a lie; And the fifth (oath) should be that she solemnly invokes the wrath of Allah on herself if (her accuser) is telling the truth." (An-Nur 6:9) he began with the man, whom he admonished and reminded (Allah's Punishment), and told that the punishment of this world is much easier than that of the hereafter, thereupon he said: "By Him, Who has sent you with the truth! I've not told a lie." Then, he moved on towards the woman, whom he admonished and reminded (of Allah's Punishment), thereupon she said: "By Him Who has sent you with the truth, he has told a lie." He began with the man, who bore witness by Allah four times that he had told the truth, and the fifth was that Allah's Curse be upon him if he had told a lie. He moved on towards the woman who bore witness by Allah four times that he (her husband) had told a lie, and the fifth was that Allah's Wrath be upon her if he had told the truth." Then (they were parted, and thus), I (Sa'id Ibn Jubair) parted them (in imitation of the right way of the Messenger of Allah).

[42] Parting Such Of The Couple As Involved In Li'an

3471- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: Al-Mus'ab did not part such of the couple as involved in Li'an, and when I made a mention of that to Ibn Umar he said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing

[43] Asking Such Of The Couple As Involved In Li'an To Turn In Repentance After Carrying Out The Measures Of Li'an

3472- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: I said to Ibn Umar: "What about a man who launched a charge against his wife (of committing fornication)?" he said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" separated (by divorce) the couple of Banu Ajlan, and said: "Allah knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent?" he said it thrice, but none of them accepted (to change his mind)." So, he parted them. Amr Ibn Dinar said: There is something in that narration, which I see you do not relate. He said: Yes: The man said: "(What about) my property?" he (the Prophet) said: "There is no property for you due upon her: if you've told the truth, then, (it would be for the legal right therewith) you consummate marriage (and had sexual relation) with her; and if you've told a lie, this (property) should be farther and more inaccessible to you."

[44] Such Of The Couple As Involved In Li'an Gather Together

3473- It is narrated on the authority of Said Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Umar about such of the couple as involved in Li'an, thereupon he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the invokers of Allah's curse upon the liar of them: "Your reckoning is with Allah. One of you two is a liar, and you (the husband) have no right over her (in case of being divorced)." The man said: "O Messenger of Allah! What about my property (Dower)?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You have no right to get back your property. If you told the truth about her then your property would be for the legal right therewith you had sexual intercourse with her; and if you told a lie about her, then it would be more inaccessible to you."

[46] When One Refers offensively To His Wife, Arouses Doubt In (The Ascription Of) The Child, In An Attempt To Deny Him

3475- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Once, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Fazarah came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He said: "How has that come?" He said: "Perhaps, it is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which it was attracted." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, this (black complexion of your child) is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which he was attracted."

3476- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Once, a man from (the tribe of) Banu Fazarah came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "My wife has delivered a black child." He seemed to have tried to deny his ascription to him. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He (The Prophet) said: "Perhaps, this (black complexion of your child) is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which he was attracted." In this way, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him no concession to deny the child's ascription to him.

3477- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: While we were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a man stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! A black child has been born on my bed (i.e. my wife has delivered a black child for me)." He asked him: "What is the reason for that (in your sight)?" he said: "I do not know." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you have (a herd of) camels?" he said: "Yes." He (The Prophet) asked: "What is their colour?" he said: "They are red." He said: "Is there any dusky one among them?" He said: "Yes, there are many dusky ones among them." He said: "What is the reason for that (in your sight)?" He said: "O Messenger of Allah! (black complexion of your child) is due to a certain (characteristics of) heredity to which he was attracted.” For this reason, the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” passed the judgement that it is impermissible for a man to deny the ascription of a child that is born on his bed to him unless he pretends he has seen his wife committing adultery.

[47] The Severe Warning Of Denying One's Child's Ascription

3478- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he heard the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” having said just after the Holy Verse of Li'an had been revealed: “Any woman who ascribes to a people such (a child) as does not belong to them Allah will never turn to her (in mercy), nor will Allah admit her to His Garden; and any man who denies (the ascription of) his child while looking at him, Allah will be screened from him (on the Day of Judgement), and further will put him to shame at the sight of the foremost and last generations.”

[48] Joining The Child To The (Owner Of The) Bed If The Owner Of The Bed Does Not Deny His Ascription

3479- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "The child should be for the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born), and the prostitute should get nothing but stones (deprivation and stoning to death)."

3480- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "The child should be for the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born), and the prostitute should get nothing but stones (deprivation and stoning to death)."

3481- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas and Abd Ibn Zam'ah quarreled over a boy belonging to the slave-girl of Zam'ah. Sa'd said: “O Messenger of Allah! This is the son of my brother Utbah Ibn Abu Waqqas who entrusted to me (to look for and take care of him since) he is his son: look at his resemblance (to Utbah)!” Abd Ibn Zam'ah said: “O Allah's Apostle! This is my brother and was born on my father's bed from his slave-girl.” The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” cast a glance of the boy and found definite resemblance to Utbah and then said: “The boy is for you, O Abd Ibn Zam'ah. The child goes to the (owner of the) bed (on which he is born) and the adulterer gets nothing but the stones (deprivation and stoning to death). O Sawdah Bint Zam'ah! Screen yourself from this boy.” He never saw Sawdah (until he died).

3484- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas and Abd Ibn Zam'ah quarreled over a boy belonging to the slave-girl of Zam'ah. Sa'd said: "My brother Utbah (Ibn Abu Waqqas) entrusted to me to look for the child of the slave-girl of Zam'ah, once I would come to Mecca and take him as he is his (illegal) son." Abd Ibn Zam'ah said: "O Allah's Apostle! This is my brother and was born on my father's bed from his slave-girl." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" cast a look at the boy and found definite resemblance to Utbah and then said: "The boy is for you, O Abd Ibn Zam'ah. He asked two of them: "Do you affirm the child to this man?" they answered in the negative. He asked other two: "Do you affirm the child to this man?" they answered in the negative, thereupon he drew lots among them, and joined the child to such as on whom the lot fell, and made two-thirds the price (of the slave-girl) due upon him (since she moved to him on account of that judgement). When a mention of that was made to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he laughed until his premolar teeth became visible.

(53) - عِدَّةُ الْمُخْتَلَعَةِ

3494 - أَخْبَرَنَا أَبُو عَلِيٍّ مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ يَحْيَى الْمَرْوَزِيُّ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي شَاذَانَ بْنُ عُثْمَانَ أَخُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَلِيُّ بْنُ الْمُبَارَكِ عَنْ يَحْيَى بْنِ أَبِي كَثِيرٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ أَنَّ الرُّبَيْعَ بِنْتَ مُعَوِّذِ بْنِ عَفْرَاءَ أَخْبَرَتْهُ: أَنَّ ثَابِتَ بْنَ قَيْسٍ بْنُ شَمَّاسٍ ضَرَبَ أَمْرَأَتَهُ فَكَسَرَ يَدَهَا وَهِيَ جَمِيلَةٌ بِنْتُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ أَبِي

Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to wait until she would get menses once, after which she should join her family.

3495- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn Al-Walid Ibn Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that he said: I said to Ar-Rubai Bint Mu'awwidh: Relate to me your narration (concerning your divorce at your request). She said: I was divorced from my husband at my request, and I came to Uthman Ibn Affan and asked him: "Which period of Iddat is due upon me?" he said: "No period of Iddat is due upon you, unless your husband had sexual relation with you recently (before divorce), and in this case, you should wait until you get your menses. In this, I'm following the judgement of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pertaining to Maryam Al-Maghaliyyah, who was the wife of Thabit Ibn Qais Ibn Shamas, and then she was divorced from him at her request.

[54] What Was Abrogated Pertaining To The Period Of Iddat Prescribed For The Divorced Women

3496- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas, concerning Allah's saying: "None of our revelations do We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, but We substitute something better or similar: do you not know that Allah has power over all things?" (Al-Baqarah 106) and: "When We substitute one revelation for another, - and Allah knows best what He reveals (in stages)." (An-Nahl 101) and: "Allah does blot out or confirm what He pleases: with Him is the Mother of the Book." (Ar-Ra'd 39) he said: The Qiblah was the first to be abrogated as shown in the Qur'an (for at first it was towards the direction of Jerusalem, and then it was turned to the Sacred House of the Ka'bah). Allah Almighty says: "Divorced women shall wait concerning themselves for three monthly periods." (Al-Baqarah 228) He further said: "Such of your women as have passed the age of monthly courses, for them the prescribed period, if you have any doubts, is three months." (At-Talaq 4) Allah abrogated of that what He willed. He says: "And if you divorce them before consummation (There is no period of Iddat do you have upon them)." (Al-Baqarah 237)

[55] The Period Of Iddat Of Such As Whose Husband Dies

3497- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Habibah that she said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days."

(55) - بَابُ عِدَّةِ الْمُتَوَفَّى عَنْهَا زَوْجُهَا

3498- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab Bint Umm Salamah from her mother that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about a woman whose husband died, and they feared for her eyes: "Should she apply kohl?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(During the pre-Islamic period of ignorance) anyone of you (whose husband died) would spend a whole year in her house, wearing the worst clothes she had after which she might come out. No (she should not apply kohl) before four months and ten days would elapse."

3499- It is narrated on the authority of Zainab Bint Umm Salamah from both Umm Salamah and Umm Habibah that they said: A woman came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Allah's Apostle! The husband of my daughter died and she is suffering from an eye disease, can I apply kohl to her eye?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "No. In the Pre-Islamic Period of ignorance, a widow among you used to spend a whole year in her house (wearing the worst of her clothes, and now this year was reduced to) just four months and ten days; and when the whole year elapsed she would then come out and throw a globe of dung (following her husband's death, to indicate that the one-year period of her mourning was over).

3500- It is narrated on the authority of Hafsa Bint Umar, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days."

3501- It is narrated on the authority of Safiyyah Bint Abu Ubaid from one of the wives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and Umm Salamah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days."

3502- It is narrated on the authority of Safiyyah Bint Abu Ubaid from one of the wives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" i.e. Umm Salamah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said the same.

[56] The Period Of Iddat Of The Pregnant Whose Husband Dies

3503- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miswar Ibn Makhramah that Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her babe a few nights after the death of her husband, thereupon she came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and sought his permission to get married, and he gave her permission, and she got married.

3504- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Miswar Ibn Makhramah that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered Subai'ah to get married (if she so liked) once she finished the postpartum period.

3505- It is narrated on the authority of Abu As-Sanabil that he said: Subai'ah (Al-Aslamiyyah) delivered her burden twenty-three or twenty-five days after the death of her husband, and when she finished the period of postpartum, she embellished herself for the suitors, thereupon she was criticized for that. When a mention of that was made to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said: "What does prevent her from doing that? No doubt, the term prescribed for her (to wait after the death of her husband) has come to an end (by delivering her burden)."

3506- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: Both Abu Hurairah and Ibn Abbas differed about such as whose husband dies and she then delivers her burden: Abu Hurairah said: "She could marry (if she so likes)." Ibn Abbas said: "(She should observe) the longer of both terms." (I.e. if she delivers her babe after a period of time lesser than four months and ten days, she then should wait until this period comes to an end; and if the term of four months and ten days comes to an end before she delivers her burden, she then should wait until she delivers her burden). They sent to Umm Salamah (to seek her verdict) thereupon she said: The husband of Subai'ah died, and she delivered her babe fifteen days i.e. half a month after his death. Then, two men demanded her hand, and she inclined to one of them. When they (her family) feared she might dispose of herself independently from them they said to her: "You are not free (to marry)." She said: Then, I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and told him of that), thereupon he said: "You've (finished your term and thus) become free (to marry): so, get married to whomever you like."

3507- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: Both Abu Hurairah and Ibn Abbas were asked about the pregnant whose husband dies: Ibn Abbas said: "(She should observe) the longer of both terms." (I.e. if she delivers her babe after a period of time lesser than four months and ten days, she then should wait until this period comes to an end; and if the term

Abu Salamah came to visit Umm Salamah and asked her about that, thereupon she said: Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her babe half a month after the death of her husband. Then, two men demanded her hand, one of whom was young, and the other was old and she inclined to the young. The old one said: "She has not yet become free (to marry)." Her family were absent, and he hoped, by saying so, that when they returned, they would favour him with her. She went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and told him of that), thereupon he said: "You've (finished your term and thus) become free (to marry): so, get married to whomever you like."

3508- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: Ibn Abbas was asked about a woman who delivered her burden twenty nights after the death of her husband: is it fitting for her to get married? He said: "No, unless she fulfills the longer of both terms." I said: "But Allah Almighty says: " for those who carry (life within their wombs), their period is until they deliver their burdens: and for those who fear Allah, He will make their path easy." (At-Talaq 4) he said: "This applies only to the matter of divorce." Abu Hurairah said: "I'm of the same opinion of the son of my brother, i.e. Abu Salamah." He (Ibn Abbas) sent Kuraib, his freed slave and said: "Go to Umm Salamah, and ask her: 'Was that out of the sunnah of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?'" He came back and told: She said: "Yes. Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her burden twenty nights after the death of her husband, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to get married (if she so liked); and Abu As-Sanabil was one of those who demanded her hand."

3509- It is narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Yasar that Ibn Abbas, Abu Hurairah and Abu Salamah discussed the term of Iddat prescribed for a woman whose husband died, and she delivered her burden after his death: Ibn Abbas said: "She should fulfill the longer of both terms." Abu Salamah said: "No, she becomes free (to marry) once she delivers her burden." Abu Hurairah said: "I'm of the same opinion of the son of my brother." They sent to Umm Salamah, the wife of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to seek her verdict) thereupon she said: "Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her burden a few time after the death of her husband, and she sought the religious verdict of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" thereupon he ordered her to get married (if she so liked)."

3510- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: "Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her burden a few nights after the death of her husband, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to get married (if she so liked)."

3511- It is narrated on the authority of Sulaiman Ibn Yasar that Abdullah Ibn Abbas and Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman discussed the term of Iddat prescribed for a woman whose husband died, and she delivered her burden a few nights after his death. Ibn Abbas said: "She should fulfill the longer of both terms." Abu Salamah said: "No, she becomes free (to marry) once she delivers her burden." Abu Hurairah came in and said: "I'm of the same opinion of the son of my brother i.e. Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman." They sent Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas to Umm Salamah to ask her about that, thereupon he came back and told them that she said: "Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah delivered her burden a few nights after the death of her husband, and she made a mention of that to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" thereupon he said to her: "You've become free (to marry, since you fulfilled your term of Iddat)."

3512- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah that he said: I was sitting in the company of Ibn Abbas and Abu Hurairah and Ibn Abbas said: "If a woman delivered her burden after the death of her husband She should fulfill the longer of both terms." Abu Salamah said: Abu Salamah said: So, we sent Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn Abbas, to Umm Salamah, to ask her about that, thereupon he came back from her with the message that the husband of Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah died, and she delivered her burden a few days after his death, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to get married (if she so liked)."

3513- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that there was a woman from Aslam called Subai'ah, and she was married, and her husband died while she was pregnant, and Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak demanded her hand, and she refused. On that he said: "It is unfitting for you to marry until you fulfill the longer of both terms." She spent nearly twenty nights and then she delivered her burden. She went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and (made a mention of that to him, and) he said to her: "Get married (to whomever you like)."

3514- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that he said: While I and Abu Hurairah were sitting with Ibn Abbas, a woman came to him and said: "A woman's husband died while she was pregnant, and then she delivered her burden less than four months after his death (has she become free to marry)?" Ibn Abbas said: "(She should fulfill)

Abu Salamah said: One of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" told me that Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Her husband died while she was pregnant and then she delivered her burden less than four months after his death." On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered her to get married (if she so liked)." Abu Hurairah said: "I bear witness to that."

3515- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah from his father that he had written to Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam Az-Zuhri, ordering him to go to Subai'ah Bint Al-Harith Al-Aslamiyyah in order that he might ask her about her story, and what The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her when she went to him to take his religious verdict (regarding her marriage after she had given birth to her child, knowing that her husband had died during her pregnancy). Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam replied: Subai'ah Bint Al-Harith told that she was married to Sa'd Ibn Khawlah who was from the tribe of Banu Amr Ibn Lu'ai, and was one of those who attended the holy battle of Badr. He died while she was pregnant during The Farewell Hajj. Soon after his death, she gave birth to a child. When she completed the term of birth confinement (and became clean), she embellished herself for suitors. Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak, a man from the tribe of Banu Abd Ad-Dar visited and said to her: "What is the matter! I see you dressed up for the people to demand you in marriage. Do you want to marry? By Allah, you are not free to marry before four months and ten days have elapsed (following your husband's death)." Subai'ah added: "When he (Abu As-Sanabil) said so, I put on my dress in the evening and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I asked about this matter. He gave the verdict that I was free to marry since I delivered my child; and ordered me to marry if I wished."

3516- It is narrated on the authority of Zufar Ibn Aws Ibn Al-Hadthan An-Nasri that Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak Ibn As-Sabbaq said to Subai'ah Al-Aslamiyyah: "It is unlawful for you (to marry) until four months and ten days have elapsed (as of the death of your husband), i.e. the longer of both terms." She then went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked him about that, and she pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the religious verdict that she was free to marry once she delivered her burden. When her husband died, she was in the ninth month of her pregnancy. Her husband was Sa'd Ibn Khawlah, who died during the Farewell Hajj which he performed in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and

3517- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah from his father that he had written to Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam Az-Zuhri, ordering him to go to Subai'ah Bint Al-Harith Al-Aslamiyyah in order that he might ask her about the religious verdict which The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave to her regarding her (marriage after she had delivered her burden, knowing that her husband had died during her) pregnancy. Umar Ibn Abdullah Ibn Arqam visited Subai'ah and asked her about that, thereupon she told him that she was married to Sa'd Ibn Khawlah who was one of those who attended the holy battle of Badr. He died while she was pregnant during The Farewell Hajj. Soon, she gave birth to a child less than four months and ten days after his death. When she completed the term of birth confinement (and became clean), Abu As-Sanabil Ibn Ba'kak, a man from the tribe of Banu Abd Ad-Dar visited her and found that she had embellished herself for suitors. On that he said to her: "Perhaps you like to be given in marriage before the term of four months and ten days came to an end. Subai'ah added: "When I heard that from Abu As-Sanabil I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whom I told about that. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, you've become free (to marry) since you delivered your burden.""

3518- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn from Muhammad that he said: I was sitting among some people in a great gathering of the Ansar, including Abd Ar-Rahman, and they discussed the matter of Subai'ah, and I made a mention the narration of Abdullah Ibn Utbah Ibn Mas'ud, as Ibn Awn had mentioned, up to his saying: "Until she delivers her burden." Ibn Abu Laila said: "But his paternal uncle (Ibn Mas'ud) does not adopt that opinion." I raised my voice, and said: "If I tell a lie about Abdullah Ibn Utbah Ibn Mas'ud, I would be then too bold, since he is in Kufah." I met Malik and asked him: "What had Ibn Mas'ud used to say pertaining to Subai'ah?" he said: He said: "Do you make the longer (term of four months and ten days) binding upon her, even though you do not make the concession in her favour? No doubt, the shorter Surah of women (i.e. At-Talaq) was revealed after the longer (Surah of women, i.e. Al-Baqarah)." (This means that the judgement pertaining to the term of four months and ten days in the Surah of Women was abrogated, as far as pregnancy is concerned, by Allah's saying in the Surah of At-Talaq: " for those who carry (life within their wombs), their period is until they deliver their burdens: and for those who fear Allah, He will make their path easy." 3519- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud that he said: Whoever wishes that I should challenge him, I should do: no doubt, the Holy Verse " for those who carry (life within their wombs), their period is until they deliver their burdens: and for those who fear Allah, He will make their path easy" (4) was not revealed but after the Holy Verse of such of women as whose husband dies: i.e. once such of women as whose husband dies delivers her burden, she becomes free (to marry if she so likes).

3520- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud that the shorter Surah of women (i.e. At-Talaq) was revealed after (the longer Surah of women, i.e.) Al-Baqarah).

[57] The Term Of Iddat Fixed For Such As Whose Husband Dies Before Consummating Marriage With Her

3521- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud was asked about a woman who got married to a man who fixed no dower for her nor did he consummate marriage with her until he died. He said: "She should have the dower in full with no reduction nor increase, (her portion of) the heritage should be given to her, and the term of Iddat is binding upon her." On that Ma'qil Ibn Sinan Al-Ashja'i stood up and said: "The same judgement as that you have given was passed by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in connection with a woman belonging to us, i.e. Baru' Bint Washiq." On that Abdullah Ibn Mas'ud became so much pleased (that his judgement agreed with that of the Messenger of Allah).

[58] Mourning (For The Dead)

3522- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not lawful for a woman to mourn for a dead more than three days, except her husband, (for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days)."

3523- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not lawful for a woman who has faith in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead more than three days, except her husband, (for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days)."

[60] Such Of Women As Whose Husband Dies Stays In Her House Until She Becomes Free (To Marry)

3525- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Fari'ah Bint Malik that her husband sent out in pursuit of some slaves belonging to him, who killed him. Her house was very far (from the habitation). She came in the company of her brother to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he gave her concession (to leave it). When she turned her back, he invited her and said: "Remain in your house until the (term of Iddat fixed in the) Book is fulfilled."

3526- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Furai'ah Bint Malik that her husband hired some slaves to work for him, and they killed him. She made a mention of that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I do not live in an independent dwelling owned by him, and he had left for me no maintenance: should I move to (the house of) my family and the orphans who are under my guardianship and look after them?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You might do." A while later he said: "What did you say?" I related to him the story of my husband once again. Upon this he said: "Stay in the very place where you've received the news (of your husband's death until the term of Iddat is fulfilled.)"

3527- It is narrated on the authority of Furai'ah that her husband set out in pursuit of some slaves belonging to him, and they killed him at near Qadum (a place six miles from Medina). She said: I went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention to him of (the possibility of) movement to my family", and she mentioned to him some of her affairs. She said: He gave me concession (to move) and when I turned away he called me and said: "Remain in the house (where you are) until the (period prescribed for such as whose husband dies in the) Book is fulfilled."

[61] The Concession For Such As Whose Husband Dies To Fulfill The Period Of Her Iddat Wherever She Likes

3528- It is narrated on the authority of Ata' from Ibn Abbas that he said: "This statement ("but if they leave (the residence), there is no blame on you for what they do with themselves") abrogated her (the widow's) dwelling in the house of her late husband, and she could complete the Iddat wherever she likes, as Allah's Statement "Without turning them out..."tells."

Zainab Bint Abu Salamah said: I entered upon Umm Habibah, the wife of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when her father Abu Sufyan Ibn Harb died. Umm Habibah asked for perfume which contained yellow scent or other kind of scent, with which she first perfumed one of the girls, and then rubbed her cheeks and said: "By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "It is not lawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days except her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.""

Humaid said: I asked Zainab: "What does "throwing a globe of dung after one year had elapsed" mean?" Zainab said: "When a lady was bereaved of her husband, she would live in a wretched small room, wear the worst clothes she had, and touch no perfume before one year had elapsed. Then she would bring an animal, e.g. a donkey, a sheep or a bird against which she would rub her body. The animal against which she would rub her body would hardly survive. Just at this time, she would come out of her room, whereupon she would be given a globe of dung, which she would throw away. Then she would use perfume or anything else she liked."

[70] The Concession For Such As Irrevocably Divorced To Come Out Of Her Residence During The Period Of Her Iddat

3544- It is narrated on the authority of Fatimah Bint Qais that she was the wife of a man from Banu Makhzum, and he divorced her thrice, and set out for a certain battle and ordered his deputy to give her some maintenance, which she regarded as little. She went direct to one of the wives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". At the same time The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came in while she was with her. She said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! This is Fatimah Bint Qais, whom so and so divorced (irrevocably), and sent some maintenance to her, which she refused, and he pretended that this (maintenance) was something he had given voluntarily." He (the Prophet) said: "He has told the truth." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Move to the house of Umm Kulthum, and spend in her house the period of your Iddat." But he said: "However, Umm Kulthum is a woman, whose visitors are more. So, move to the house of Abdullah Ibn Umm Maktum, for he is blind." She went to the house of Abdullah Ibn Umm Maktum, and spent the period of her Iddat there until when it was fulfilled, both Abu Al-Jahm and Mu'awiyah Ibn Abu Sufyan demanded her hand. She went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and sought her verdict concerning them, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "As for Abu Al-Jahm I fear his moving the stick (therewith he beats women so much) for you; and as for Mu'awiyah, he is lacking in property." Later on, she got married to Usamah Ibn Zaid.

3545- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Awf that Fatimah Bint Qais was the wife of Abu Amr Ibn Hafs Ibn Al-Mughirah Al-Makhzumi, who divorce her with the last and third pronouncement of divorce (i.e. divorced her irrevocably). She asserted that she went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", asking for his religious verdict regarding her coming out of her house. He (The Prophet) ordered her to move to the house of Ibn Umm Maktum, the blind (to spend there the period of her Iddat). Marwan (who was Medina's governor at that time) refused to believe in that narration of Fatimah Bint Qais as regards the coming out of the divorced woman from her house (before finishing the prescribed period of her Iddat). Urwah said that A'ishah also denied that (statement) of Fatimah Bint Qais.

3546- It is narrated on the authority of Fatimah Bint Qais that she said: I said: "O Messenger of Allah! My husband divorced me thrice (i.e. irrevocably), and I fear my house might be intruded (by thieves and robbers since it is very far from the habitation)." He ordered me (to leave it) and I left it (accordingly for the house of Ibn Umm Maktum).

3547- It is narrated on the authority of Ash-Sha'bi that he said: I visited Fatimah Bint Qais, and asked her about the judgement of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" upon her, thereupon she told that her husband divorced her irrevocably, and she appealed to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to judge between them concerning the matter of maintenance and residence, and he judged that neither residence nor maintenance be due to me, and rather he ordered me to spend the period of my Iddat in the house of Ibn Umm Maktum (the blind).

3548- It is narrated on the authority of Ash-Sha'bi from Fatimah Bint Qais that she said: My husband divorced me irrevocably, and I liked to move (from the house), and so I went direct to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and asked him about that), thereupon he said: "Move to the house of your paternal cousin Amr Ibn Umm Maktum and spend the period of your Iddat there." Al-Aswad threw him (Ash-Sha'bi) with pebbles and said to him: "Woe to you! How do you give such religious verdict? (Do you not know that) Umar said to her: "If you bring two witnesses, to bear witness that they had heard that from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (we might adopt it), otherwise, we are not to leave Allah's Book just for the statement of a woman." (Allah Almighty says): " and turn them not out of their houses, nor shall they (themselves) leave, except in case they are guilty of some open lewdness." (At-Talaq 1)

[71] Such As Whose Husband Dies And She Is Spending The Period Of Her Iddat Comes Out Of The House During The Day

3549- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that his maternal aunt was divorced, and she wanted to come out to her date-palms (during the period of her Iddat), and she met a man (on the way) who forbade her. She went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to her: "Come out and pluck the fruits of your date-palms, perchance you might give in charity and do favour."

[72] The Maintenance Of Such As Irretrievably Divorced

3550- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Abu Al-Jahm that he said: I and Abu Salamah visited Fatimah Bint Qais, and she said: My husband divorced me, and fixed neither residence nor maintenance for me, and rather deposited ten Sa's with a paternal cousin of him, five of parley and five of dates. I soon went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "He has told the truth." He ordered me to spend the period of my Iddat in the house of so and so. Her husband divorced her irretrievably.

[73] The Maintenance Of The Pregnant Whose Divorce Is Final

3551- It is narrated on the authority of Ubaidullah Ibn Abdullah Ibn Utbah that Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Uthman irrevocably divorced the daughter of Sa'id Ibn Zaid, whose mother was Hamnah Bint Qais, thereupon her maternal aunt Fatimah Bint Qais ordered her to leave the house of Abdullah Ibn Amr. Marwan (who was at that time the governor of Medina) heard of that, and he sent to her with the order to return to her house until the term of her Iddat would be fulfilled. She sent to him with the message that her maternal aunt Fatimah Bint Qais gave her such religious verdict, and told her that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her the religious verdict to leave the house when Abu Amr Ibn Hafs Al-Makhzumi divorced her (irrevocably). Marwan sent to her Qabisah Ibn Dhu'aib to ask her about that, and she told that she was the wife of Abu Amr Ibn Hafs Ibn Al-Mughirah. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appointed Ali Ibn Abu Talib as the governor of Yemen, he set out with him and he sent to her (a message in which he pronounced the third and) last divorce which remained for her, and ordered that Al-Harith Ibn Hisham and Ayyash Ibn Abu Rabie'ah to give her maintenance. She sent to both Al-Harith and Ayyash to ask them about the maintenance which her husband ordered them to give her, and They said (to her): "By Allah! She has no (right of) maintenance (on us), unless she is pregnant, nor has she the right to live in our residence unless it is with our permission." She went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and mentioned to him their statement which he confirmed. She asked: "Where would I move O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "To (the house of) Ibn Umm Maktum." However, he was the blind one, in connection with whom Allah Almighty blamed His Messenger in His Book. I moved to his house, in whose house, I was able to put off my garment (without seeing me). (When the period of her Iddat was over) The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave her in marriage to Usamah Ibn Zaid.

[74] The Monthly Periods

3552- It is narrated on the authority of Urwah Ibn Az-Zubair that Fatimah Bint Abu Hubaish told him that she came to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and complained to him how she suffered a persistent bleeding (from the uterus according to which she would not become clean). Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" replied: "It is just from a blood vessel (and not the menses). So when your real menses begins give up your prayers (and calculate the days a normal menses lasts) and when it finishes wash off the blood (by taking a bath) and offer your prayers in the period between one menses and another."

[75] The Abrogation Of Bringing Back One's Wife After The Three Pronouncements Of Divorce

3553- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas, concerning Allah's saying: "None of our revelations do We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, but We substitute something better or similar: Do you not know that Allah has power over all things?" (Al-Baqarah 106) and: "When We substitute one revelation for another, - and Allah knows best what He reveals (in stages)." (An-Nahl 101) and: "Allah does blot out or confirm what He pleases: with Him is the Mother of the Book." (Ar-Ra'd 39) he said: The Qiblah was the first to be abrogated as shown in the Qur'an (for at first it was towards the direction of Jerusalem, and then it was turned to the Sacred House of the Ka'bah). Allah Almighty says: "Divorced women shall wait concerning themselves for three monthly periods. Nor is it lawful for them to hide what Allah has created in their wombs, if they have faith in Allah and the Last Day. And their husbands have the better right to take them back in that period, if they wish for reconciliation." (Al-Baqarah 228) it was the habit that if a man divorced his wife, he had the right to remarry her even though he divorced her thrice. But this was abrogated by Allah's saying: "A divorce is only permissible twice: after that, the parties should either hold together on equitable terms, or separate with kindness." (Al-Baqarah 229)

[76] Bringing Back One's Wife

3554- it is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar divorced his wife once, while she was menstruating. Then, Umar went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked for his verdict, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Tell him to take her back (and keep her) until she is clean and then divorce her if he so likes (before approaching her)." I (Yunus) asked: "Was it counted (as valid one divorce)?" he (Ibn Umar) said: "What would prevent it to be so? What would you think if someone became helpless (to take his wife back) and foolish?"

3555- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' from Abdullah Ibn Umar that he had divorced his wife while she was menstruating. Umar Ibn Al-Khattab made a mention of that to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Order him to take her back (and keep her) till she gets her next period and when she becomes clean, let him divorce her if he so likes, or keep her if he so likes: that is the right way of divorce according to what Allah Almighty ordered when He said: " When you do divorce women, divorce them at their prescribed periods, and count (accurately) their prescribed periods." (At-Talaq 1)

3556- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: whenever Ibn Umar was asked about such as divorced his wife while she was menstruating, he used to say: "If one divorced his wife once or twice, no doubt, Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to take her back, and keep her until she would get her next menses, and become clean from it and then he could divorce her before approaching her (if he so liked). But in case one divorced his wife thrice, no doubt, you've disobeyed Allah in what He Almighty ordered you concerning the divorce of your wife, and your wife then would depart from you irrevocably."

3557- It is narrated on the authority of Salim that Ibn Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating, thereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to take her back; and he did accordingly.

3558- it is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he was asked about a man who divorced his wife while she was menstruating, and he said: "Do you know Abdullah Ibn Umar?" he (the asker) said: "Yes." He said: "Abdullah Ibn Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating. Then, Umar went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and asked for his verdict, thereupon he said: "Tell him to take her back (and keep her) until she is clean (from her menses)."

3559- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas from Ibn Umar that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" divorced Hafsa (once) and then he took her back; and Allah knows better.

(28) THE BOOK OF HORSES

[1]

3560- It is narrated on the authority of Salamah Ibn Nufail Al-Kindi that he said: I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man said: "O Messenger of Allah! The people underestimated horses, and put down the weapons and said: "There is no Jihad (fight in Allah's Cause) since war laid down its burdens (and came to its end)." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" faced them and said: "They've told a lie. Now! Now! It is time for fight (in Allah's Cause). A group of my nation will remain fighting in truth, for whom Allah Almighty will cause the hearts of other nations to swerve (from the truth) for their sake (in order to fight them and) provide them with their sustenance from them, until the Hour (of Judgement) is established and Allah's Promise comes true. Of a surety, good is tied in the forelocks of horses to the Day of Judgement. I've been divinely revealed that I will die and I will never abide (in this world forever), and you are going to follow me, in the form of opposing groups, striking the necks of each other. To be sure, Sham will be the homeland of the faithful believers."

3561- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Goodness is tied in the forelocks of horses to the Day of Judgement. (Keeping) horses is for three (purposes): they may be a source of reward to somebody, a shelter to another (as Means of earning one's living), or a burden to a third. He to whom they will be a source of reward is the one who keeps them in Allah's Cause and prepares them (for holy war) and they never get anything in their bellies but that a reward will be written for him in return for it and if he grazes them in a pasture, they never eat anything but that a reward will be written for him in return for it,, and if he waters them from a flowing river, then in return for every drop of water they get in their bellies a reward will be written for him (and he also made a mention of the reward their owner will receive in their urine and dung); and if they cover one or two hills, for every step they take, a reward will be written for him. As for him, to whom horses are a shelter from poverty it is him, who keeps them for earning his living so as not to ask others, and at the same time he does not forget the right due upon their backs and bellies, at both times of adversity and prosperity. As for him to whom they are (a cause of) burden it is that who keeps horses just out of arrogance, pride, luxury and to be seen of men: it is he, to whom they are (a cause of) sin."

3562- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Keeping horses may be a source of reward to somebody, a shelter to another (as Means of earning one's living), or a burden to a third. He to whom the horse will be a source of reward is the one who keeps it in Allah's Cause (by preparing it for holy war) and ties it by a long rope in a pasture (or a garden). He will get a reward equal to what its long rope allows it to eat in the pasture or the garden, and if that horse breaks its rope and crosses one or two hills, then all its footsteps and its dung will be counted as good deeds for its owner; and if it passes by a river and drinks from it, then that will also be regarded as a good deed for its owner even if he has had no intention of watering it then: in this way, it will be a (source of) reward for him. (Horses are a shelter from poverty to) such as ties them for earning his living so as not to ask others, and at the same time he does not forget to give Allah's right (by giving what is due upon) their necks, and (lending) their backs (for carriage and transportation): for this reason, they are a (cause of) covering for him. He who ties horses just out of pride and for showing off and as a means of harming Muslims, his horses will be (a source of) sins to him." When the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about donkeys, he replied: "Nothing was revealed to me regarding them in particular except the uniquely comprehensive verses: "Then shall anyone who has done an atom's weight of good, see it! And anyone who has done an atom's weight of evil, shall see it." (Az-Zalzalah 7:8)

[2] Loving Horses

3563- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: Nothing was dearer to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (in this world) after women than horses.

[3] Which Characteristics Of Horses Are Desirable

3564- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Wahb Al-Jushmi, and he was a companion of the Prophet, that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Name yourselves by the names of the Prophets, and the dearest names in the Sight of Allah Almighty are Abdullah (servant of Allah) and Abd Ar-Rahman (servant of (Allah) Most Gracious). Furthermore, tie (and keep) horses (in Allah's Cause), and wipe (dust and dirt off) their forelocks and thighs, and prepare them (for war in Allah's Way), and do not tie them with strings (to get ready for taking revenge as was the habit during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance); and I advise you to keep the horse of red complexion, white forehead, and white

[4] The Limb-Opposing Horses

3565- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” disliked the limb-opposing horses (which had whiteness in both the right leg and left arm, or in both the left leg and the right arm).

3566- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” used to dislike the limb-opposing horses. ### [16] Setting Aside (A Spare Horse To Be Used At Necessity)

3590- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Husain that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None should set aside (a spare horse in addition to such as involved in the race, with the intention to ride it in case his horse weakens or is exhausted), nor should one follow a horseman engaged in a horse race to make assaults (on the other contenders), nor should there be Shighar in Islam."

3591- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: A desert dweller (on his camel) raced the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (on his she-camel), and he preceded him, with the result that the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" seemed to have become angry within themselves. When a mention of that was made to him he said: "It is Allah's Law that nothing raises itself high in the world but that Allah Almighty brings it down."

[17] The Shares Of Horses

3592- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair that he said: In the year of (the holy battle of) Khaibar, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" fixed four shares for Az-Zubair Ibn Al-Awwam: one for him, one for the kinship, i.e. Az-Zubair's mother Safiyyah Bint Abd Al-Muttalib, and two for his horse.

(29) THE BOOK OF ENDOWMENTS

[1]

3593- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Al-Harith that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left no Dinar nor Dirham, nor slave nor slave-girl (in short he left nothing after him) barring his white mule, which he used to ride, his weapon, and a (piece of) land, which he gave as endowment in Allah's Cause (or which he left to be given in charity according to Qutaibah).

3594- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Al-Harith that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left nothing after him barring his white mule, his weapon, and a (piece of) land, which he left to be given in charity.

3595- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Al-Harith that he said: I saw that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" left nothing after him barring his white mule, his weapon, and a (piece of) land, which he left to be given in charity.

[2] How Should An Endowment Be Made?

3596- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: I've got some land in Khaibar and I went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to consult him about it) saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I've got some land in Khaibar better and dearer than which I have never had, what do you suggest for me to do with it?" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If you like you can give it in charity (as an endowment)." So Umar gave it in charity as an endowment on the condition that it should neither be sold, nor given to anybody as a gift. However, its yield would be given in charity to the poor people, to the Kith and kin, for manumitting slaves, for Allah's Cause, to the guests and travellers. But there would be no harm if the administrator of the endowment ate from it, according to his need, and fed others without the intention of getting wealthy from it.

3597- The same is narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar from Umar Ibn Al-Khattab from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

3598- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi from Ibn Umar that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab got some land in Khaibar and he went to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I've got some land in Khaibar better than which I have never had, what do you

I had one hundred heads (of animals) therewith I purchased (a land of) one hundred shares in Khaibar from its owners, and I like to come much nearer to Allah Almighty through it (i.e. by giving it in Allah's Cause)." I looked and behold! the people were gathering in the mosque around some men in the middle who were sitting. Behold! They were Ali Ibn Abu Talib, Talhah, Az-Zubair and Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas "Allah's Mercy be upon them". When I approached them, it was said: "This is Uthman Ibn Affan and he has come." 3606- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Ahnaf Ibn Qais that he said: We set out as pilgrims, and we went to Medina with the intention to perform Hajj, and while we were in our dwelling places, unpacking our luggage, a comer came and said: "The people have been scared and they are now gathering in the mosque." We went and found the people having gathered in the mosque around some men in the middle, including Ali, Talhah, Az-Zubair and Sa'd Ibn Abu Waqqas. Such being the case, Uthman came having a yellow sheet therewith he covered his head. He said: "Is there Talhah? Is there Az-Zubair? Is there Sa'd?" they answered in the affirmative. He said: "I beseech you by Allah, other than Whom there is no god (to be worshipped): do you know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: 'Who could purchase the date-drying place of sons of so and so, Allah forgives him'? I then purchased it for twenty or twenty-five thousand (Dirhams) and when I came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him, he said: 'Make it in our mosque, and you will receive its reward.'" They said: "Yes by Allah (we know that)." He said: "I beseech you by Allah, other than Whom there is no god (to be worshipped): do you know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: 'Who could purchase the well of Rumah Allah forgives him'? I then purchased it for such and such (money)

3607- It is narrated on the authority of Thumamah Ibn Hazn Al-Qushairi that he said: I was present when Uthman looked at the people from the window of his house and said: "I beseech you by Allah and Islam: do you know that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to Medina and there was no sweet water (fitting for drink) barring that of the well of Rumah, thereupon he said: 'He, who purchases the well of Rumah, and makes his (portion of it no more than a) bucket in it with the buckets of the Muslims, will have what is better than it in the Garden'? He said: "I beseech you by Allah and Islam: do you know that the mosque became too narrow to imply its visitors, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: 'He, who purchases the piece of land of so and so, therewith to increase the area of the mosque, will have what is better than it in the Garden'? 3608- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that he said: When Uthman was besieged, he looked at the people from the window of his house and said: "I beseech by Allah a man who heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said on the day of the mountain, when it trembled, thereupon he kicked it and said: 'Be at rest, for none other than a Prophet, or a Truly Faithful Believer, or two martyrs are on you!' at that time, I was with him (on the mountain." Some people responded to his appeal (and bore witness in his favour). He said: "I beseech by Allah a man who saw the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the day (the Muslims swore) fealty which received Allah's Good Pleasure, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: 'This is the Hand of Allah, and this is the hand of Uthman.'" Some men responded to his appeal (and bore witness in his favour). He further said: "I beseech by Allah a man who heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said on the day of the army of Difficulty: 'Who could spend something to be accepted (by Allah)?' and I prepared half the army from my own wealth." Some men responded to his appeal (and bore witness in his favour). Some men responded to his appeal (and bore witness in his favour). He said: "I beseech by Allah a man who saw the (well of) Rumah being sold, and I purchased it from my own wealth, and gave it in charity to the wayfarers." Some men responded to his appeal (and bore witness in his favour).

3609- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Abd Ar-Rahman As-Salami that when Uthman was besieged in his house, the people gathered around his house, and he looked at them from a window in his house...and the rest is the same.

(30) THE BOOK OF BEQUESTS

[1] It Is Undesirable To Defer The Bequest

3610- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: A man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Which (object of) charity is greater in reward?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is to give in charity while you are still healthy and niggardly, fearing poverty, and hoping for survival, and do not wait until when it (the soul) reaches the throat (and you are on the threshold of death), you say: 'Give so and so such and such, and so and so will have such and such (property).'"

3611- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who among you to whom the property of his heir is dearer than his own property?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! There is none of us, but that his own property is much dearer to him than the property of his heir." Should I bequeath two-thirds my property (to be given in Allah's Cause?" he answered in the negative. He asked: "Then, should I bequeath half of it?" he answered in the negative. He further asked: "Then, should I bequeath one-third?" he said: "Let it be one-third, even though one-third is so much. No doubt, it is better to leave your heirs rich than to leave them poor, begging from others."

3633- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: If the people reduce (their bequests to no more than) one-fourth (their property, it would be better), for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Let it be one-third, even though one-third is so much."

3634- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Sa'd from his father Sa'd Ibn Malik that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came to visit him (and enquire about his health), while he was ill. he said: "I have only one daughter: should I bequeath the whole of my property (to be given in Allah's Cause)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the negative. He said: "Then, should I bequeath half of it (to be given in Allah's Cause)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the negative. He said: "Then, should I bequeath one-third?" he said: "Let it be one-third, even though one-third is so much."

3635- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that his father was martyred on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, and left six daughters and he was in debt. When it was time for plucking the fruits of the date-palms, (and he resumed) I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "You've known that my father was martyred on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, and he left so much debt to be fulfilled, and I like that the creditors should see you." He said: "Go, and place every kind of dates in a pile in one side (of the garden)." I did accordingly, and then I invited him. When they (the creditors) looked at the (dates), they seemed to have been tempted against me at that time. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw what they were doing, he went round the most huge pile of the dates three times, over which he sat down and said to me: "Invite your creditors." He kept weighing for them (their due) until Allah Almighty helped the debt of my father to be fulfilled, and I was well-pleased to have the debt of my father fulfilled (if no fruit remained) even though no fruit decreased.

[4] Fulfilling The Debt Before Giving The Wealth To The Heirs

3636- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that his father died and he was in debt. He said: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! My father died, and he was indebt, and he left nothing except the yield of his date-palms, which is too insufficient to fulfill his debt unless it is given for many years. So, please, O Messenger of Allah, come with me, lest the creditors would behave offensively against me." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came, and went round every pile of dates, asking for Allah's Peace, and invoking good. Then, he sat over which and invited the creditors, and gave them their due in full, with the like of what they took remaining.

3637- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: Abdullah Ibn Amr Ibn Haram (my father) died, and he was in debt. I asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to use his good offices with the creditors to have my creditors reduce anything from their due, and he required them to do, but they rejected. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Go and classify your dates (In heaps) according to their different kinds: the date-paste (the best kind of dates in Medina) on one side, the cluster of Zaid (a bad kind of dates) on another side, etc. Then call me." I did accordingly, and The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came and sat at the head or in the middle of the heaps and ordered me: "Weigh (the dates) for the people (creditors)." I weighed for them till I paid all the debts. My dates remained as if nothing had been taken from them.

3638- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: My father owed a Jew some dates, and he (my father) was killed on the day of (the holy battle of) Uhud, and left two gardens, and the dates of the Jew was to take up all the yield of the two gardens. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Would you take half of your dates this year, and defer the remaining half to the next year?" he answered in the negative. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to Jabir): "Then, would you start plucking the fruits now? Notify me (when it is time for that)." I notified him, and he and Abu Bakr came, and we went on plucking and weighing (for the Jew) from the lower portion of the date-palms, while The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was invoking blessing until his due was given to him in full from the smaller of both gardens, as Ammar (a sub-narrator thought). I brought fresh-dates and water for them, and they ate and drank and then Allah's

3639- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: My father died, and he was in debt. I proposed that my creditors should take the fruits (of the date-palms) in return for their debts, but they refused on the basis that this would not fulfill their debts. I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and made a mention of that to him, thereupon he said: "When you pluck the fruits and gather the yield in the date-drying place, notify me." When I plucked the fruits and gathered the yield in the date-drying place, I came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and notified him). He came in the company of Abu Bakr and Umar, and he sat over it, and invoked blessing upon it. Then he said: "Invite your creditors and give them their due in full." I've never left anyone whom my father owed a debt but that I fulfilled his debt, with thirteen Wasaqs (of dates) remaining. When I made a mention of that to him he smiled and said: "Go to Abu Bakr and Umar and tell them of that." I came to Abu Bakr and Umar and told them of that, thereupon they said: "Since The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did what he had done, we have come to know that this (which has happened) would be so."

[11] What Could A Trustee Have From An Orphan's Property?

3667- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that a man came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "I'm a poor man and has no property, but I have an orphan under my guardianship (who has property)." On that he said: "Eat from the property of the orphan that is under your guardianship, but without extravagance, nor wastefulness, nor investing it (for your own interest)."

3668- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that when Allah Almighty revealed: "Those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans, eat up a fire into their own bodies: they will soon be enduring a blazing fire" everyone who had an orphan under his guardianship hurried and separated his food and drink from those of the guardian (and his family). This became hard upon them (the guardians), and they mentioned that to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon, Allah Almighty revealed: "They ask you concerning orphans. Say: the best thing to do is what is for their good; if you mix their affairs with yours, they are your brethren; but Allah knows the man who means mischief from the man who means good. And if Allah had wished, He could have put you into difficulties: He is indeed Exalted in Power, Wise."

3669- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said concerning Allah's saying: "Those who unjustly eat up the property of orphans": It was the habit that if a man had an orphan under his guardianship, he would separate his food, drink and utensils, and when this was difficult upon the Muslims, Allah Almighty revealed: "if you mix their affairs with yours, they are your brethren." In this way mixing with them was made lawful for them.

[12] Refraining From Eating Up The Orphan's Property

3670- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Avoid committing the seven destructive (major) sins." It was said: "O Messenger of Allah! What are they?" he said: "To associate others with Allah (in worship), (to be in the state of) niggardliness, to unlawfully kill the human which Allah prohibited except legally, to consume the orphan's property, to consume the usury, to flee on the day of the advance (of the enemy), and to slander the chaste innocent believing women."

3681- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that he said: My mother asked my father to present a gift from his property to me, and he did accordingly. She (my mother) said: "I would not be satisfied unless The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" is made a witness to it." My father caught hold of my hand, and I was still a young boy, and went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! The mother of this (boy), Bint Rawahah, asked me to give this as a gift, and she liked that I should make you witness to it." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Bashir! Do you have other sons besides him?" He said: "Yes." He asked: "Have you donated to all of them the like of that (you've donated to An-Nu'man)?" he replied in the negative. ## (32) THE BOOK OF GIFT

[1] The Common Gift

3687- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: We were sitting with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when the delegate of (the tribe of) Hawazin came to him and said: "O Muhammad! We're a main tribe (of the Arabs) and a (well-known) clan (among them), and we've been put to such distress as it is not hidden from you: grant us (our property and captives) might Allah grant you (blessing)." He said: "Choose either your property or your women and children." They said: "You've given us the freedom to choose our ancestry or property, and we choose our women and children." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for that which is under the disposal of me and the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, it will be brought back to you. When I offer Zhuhr prayer, stand up and say: 'We seek the help of the Messenger of Allah to get the faithful believers or Muslims (give us back) our women and children'." When they offered Zhuhr prayer, they stood up and said so, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As for that which is under the disposal of me and the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, it will be brought back to you." The Muhajirs said: "As for that which is under the disposal of us, it is under the disposal of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Ansar said: "As for that which is under the disposal of us, it is under the disposal of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Al-Aqra' Ibn Habis said: "As for me and Banu Tamim, this is not so." Uyainah Ibn Hisn said: "As for me and Banu Fazarah, this is not so." Al-Abbas Ibn Mirdas said: "As for me and Banu Sulaim, this is not so." Banu Sulaim said: "You've told a lie! As for that which is under the disposal of us, it is under the disposal of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O people! Give them back their women and children, and whoever among you stuck to anything of that (and he would bring it back), would be given by us six camels from (one-fifth) the first booty of war which will be granted to us by Allah Almighty." Then, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode his mount and the people rode (and walked) after him, saying pressingly: "Distribute the booty among us!" this forced him to come closer to a tree, which snatched his garment, thereupon he said: "O people! Bring back my garment! By Allah! Had you got as much camels as the trees of Tihamah, I would have distributed them among you with justice, and you

I have nothing from that booty, and not even this barring the one-fifth, (which should be assigned to Allah and His Messenger), and even this one-fifth is given back to you." A man having some hair in his hand stood up and said: "I've taken this to mend a saddle belonging to me." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "As to that which is under the disposal of me and the sons of Abd Al-Muttalib, it is lawful for you to take (and as to the shares of the others, they should give their consent concerning that)." He said: "As long as it has come to such a state, I have then no need for that (cluster of hair)." He then threw it. He said: "O people! Give back (everything of that booty, even if it is) a needle and a string. No doubt, the misappropriation will be a cause of shame and disgrace on the Day of Judgement."

[2] The Father Could Take Back What He Grants To His Son

3688- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "None should take back his gift barring a father who could take back his gift which he grants to his son; and such as takes back his gift is like him, who swallows back his vomit."

3689- It is narrated on the authority of both Ibn Abbas and Ibn Umar, tracing it up to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "It is unlawful for a man to take back his gift, except a father, (who could take back) what he grants to his son; and the example of such as takes back his gift is like the example of a dog, which eats, and when it is satisfied, it vomits, and then returns to eat its vomit once again."

3690- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Such as takes back his gift is like a dog, which vomits, and then returns to eat its vomit."

3691- It is narrated on the authority of Tawus that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is unlawful for a man to take back his gift, except (a father who could take back) what he grants to his son." Tawus said: When I was still young, I used to hear 'such as eats back his vomit', and I did not know that he (the Prophet) set forth an example for them saying: "and the example of such as does so (i.e. takes back his gift) is like the example of a dog, which eats, and then vomits, and then returns to eat its vomit."

(34) THE BOOK OF UMRA

(It is a lifetime gift, in the sense that a man gives a gift to another to get benefit from it during his lifetime; and it has three cases: the first is to give him something continually, in the sense that it is for him as well as for his heirs after his death, and it is unanimously agreed that it is permissible, on the basis that it is a gift. The second is to give another something stipulating the condition that it is for him as long as he is alive, and once he dies, it should be brought back to the giver; and it is permissible, but without the same common agreement among the religious scholars. The third is to give something to another with no conditions at all).

3745- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed his judgement concerning the one who gave a lifetime gift to another along with his offspring (after him), that it will be an irretrievable gift to him to whom it is given, in such a way that it should not be brought back to the giver, since it becomes a portion of the heritage of him (to whom it is given, to be inherited by his offspring after him) to which the rules and right of Allah's inheritance apply.

3746- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” passed his judgement concerning the one who has been given a permanent life gift along with his offspring (after him), that it should be an irretrievable gift to him (and then to his offspring after him), in such a way that the donator would not be permitted to give any condition or exception as regards it. Abu Salamah said: That’s because he (the donator) has given a gift to which the (rules of) inheritance would apply; and it is that which abrogated his condition.

3747- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman that Jabir Ibn Abdullah told him: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Whoever donated a lifetime gift to somebody along with his offspring, by saying: 'I’ve given this as a lifetime gift to you and then to your offspring (after you) as long as anyone of you survives', then it should belong to the one to whom it was granted, and should not return to the donator, because he has given it as a gift to which the (rules of) inheritance would apply.”

3748- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” passed the judgement concerning the lifetime gift that a man gives a lifetime gift to another as well as to his offspring, making an exception that 'If something befalls you, and your offspring, it should go back to me and my offspring', that it becomes right for him, to whom it is given, as well as to his offspring after him.

None hears of it but that he will have no (desire to) enter it (for fear of its severity)." Then, He Almighty ordered that it be surrounded by the things that are desired and coveted for, and then said to him: "O Gabriel! Go and catch a glimpse of it." He went and looked at it and behold! It was surrounded by the things that are desired and coveted for. then he returned and said: "O Lord! By Your Power and Honour! I fear none remains but that he will enter it."

[43] Making Exception

3860- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "He, who takes oath in which he says: 'Allah Willing', has, indeed, made exception (according to which, it is up to him to fulfill his oath if he so likes, or leave it if he so likes, without being considered to have broken his oath)."

3861- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said, tracing it to the Messenger of Allah: Solomon, the son of David, said: “Tonight I will go round (and have sexual intercourse with) ninety ladies each of whom will conceive a child who will fight in Allah's Cause.” It was said to him: “Say 'Allah willing'.” But Solomon did not say it. He visited them (and had sexual intercourse with them). But, none of those women got pregnant except one who gave birth to a half child. The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: "Had Solomon said 'Allah willing', he would not have failed (to have such children), and it would have been his access to get his need.”

(Ibn Juraij said) "Or even when you hired him and a portion of the year has elapsed." He said: "You should not reckon me (the hireling) for what has elapsed."

[45] The Different Narrations Pertaining To The Forbiddance Of Renting The Land In Return For One-Third Or One-Fourth The Yields

3867- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Zuhair that he went out to his people, Banu Harithah, and said: "O Banu Harithah! A calamity has befallen you." They asked: "What is that?" he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land." We said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let's rent it in return for a specific amount of grains." He answered in the negative. He said: "We used to rent it in return for a specific amount of fodder." He answered in the negative. He said: "We used to rent it in return for what would grow on the bank of a spring." On that he said: "No: you should cultivate it yourself, otherwise, give it to your brother (to cultivate) as gratis."

Tawus rejected that narration and said: I heard that Ibn Abbas saw no harm in it.

3902- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we used to rent the land (for one-third or one-fourth its yield. He pretended that one of his paternal uncles came to him and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade me to do a thing, which was been of benefit for us, but the obedience of Allah and His Messenger is much more beneficial for us." We asked: "What is that?" He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who has got a (piece of) land, let him cultivate it by himself, or give it as gratis to his brother to cultivate it, and let not him rent the land for one-third or one-fourth (its yield), or for a definite amount of food."

3903- It is narrated on the authority of Hanzalah Ibn Qais from Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: One of my paternal uncles told me that during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they used to rent the land for what would grow on the banks of the spring, in addition to something from the yield which the landlord would keep for himself. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do so. I asked Rafi': "Then, how should the land be rented? Should it be rented for Dinar and Dirham?" Rafi' said: "There is no harm in that."

3904- It is narrated on the authority of Hanzalah Ibn Qais Al-Ansari that he said: I asked Rafi' Ibn Khadij about renting the land for Dinar and Dirham, thereupon he said: There is no harm in that. during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", they used to rent the land for what would grow on the banks of the springs, and the heads of the streams, and it happened that that portion would be safe and this portion would be blighted, and vice versa; and since the people at that time had no other way of renting their farms other than that, they were forbidden to do so. But as for renting the land for a definite thing (such as money), there is no harm in it.

3905- It is narrated on the authority of Hanzalah Ibn Qais Al-Ansari that he said: I asked Rafi' Ibn Khadij about renting the land. He said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that. I asked him: "Even for Dinar and Dirham (i.e. gold and silver)? He said: No. he forbade renting the land for what would be produced out of it. But as for renting it for gold and silver, there is no harm in it.

3906- It is narrated on the authority of Hanzalah Ibn Qais Al-Ansari that he said: I asked Rafi' Ibn Khadij about renting the land for Dinar and Dirham, thereupon he said: It is lawful, since there is no harm in that. As such the land should be rented.

3907- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to rent our land (for a specific share of its yield), and at that time, there was no (renting for) gold and silver, and by then a man used to rent his farm for what would grow on the bank of the spring or on the head of the stream, or for a definite amount of things...and the rest is the same.

3908- The same is narrated on the authority of Salim Ibn Abdullah.

3909- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab: Salim Ibn Abdullah told me that Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his land, until he was informed that Rafi Ibn Khadij related from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he forbade renting the land. Abdullah met him and asked: "O Ibn Khadij! What do you narrate from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as regards renting the land?" Rafi Ibn Khadij said to Abdullah: "I heard my two paternal uncles – and they had attended the holy battle of Badr- telling some of the family members that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had forbidden renting the land." Abdullah said: "No doubt, I learnt that the land used to be rented during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"." But, Abdullah feared that perhaps The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" might have issued a latest command (by which he forbade it), which he (Abdullah) did not know. So, he abandoned renting the land.

3910- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he said: We were reported that Rafi Ibn Khadij related from his two paternal uncles –and he pretended that they had attended the holy battle of Badr- that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land.

3911- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he said: Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab used to say: There is no harm in renting the land for gold and silver (i.e. for money), even though Rafi' Ibn Khadij related that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade that.

3912- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. Afterwards Rafi' was asked about the way they used to rent their land, thereupon he said: "(They used to rent the land) for a definite amount of food, on the condition that what would grow on the banks of the springs and the heads of the streams should be for us (the landlords)."

Abdullah said: "We learn that during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he had a farm in his possession, which he used to rent on the condition that he should have what would grow on the bank of the spring, from which the water would gush forth, in addition to a definite amount of fodder, and I do not know how much it was.

3914- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his land, and some news pertaining to that reached him from Rafi' Ibn Khadij, thereupon he took hold of my hand, and walked to Rafi' and I was in his company, and Rafi' told him from some of his paternal uncles that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. Afterwards Abdullah abandoned that.

3915- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his land until Rafi' told him from some of his paternal uncles that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. Afterwards Abdullah abandoned that.

3916- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his farms, until he was informed, during the last portion of Mu'awiyah's caliphate, that Rafi' Ibn Khadij related that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. He went to him and I was in his company, and when he asked him, Rafi' told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the farms. Afterwards Abdullah abandoned that; and whenever he was asked about it, he used to say: Rafi' Ibn Khadij pretended that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land.

3917- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his farms, until he was informed that Rafi' Ibn Khadij related that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. He went to him at Balat (a rocky ground in Medina) and I was in his company, and when he asked him, Rafi' said: "Yes, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the farms." Afterwards Abdullah abandoned that.

3918- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that a man told Ibn Umar that that Rafi' Ibn Khadij related a narration from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" pertaining to renting the land. I set out with him and the man who told him about that, until he met Rafi' (and when he asked him) Rafi' told him that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land. Afterwards Abdullah abandoned renting the land.

3919- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that Rafi' told Abdullah Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the farms.

3920- It is narrated on the authority of Nafi' that he said: Abdullah Ibn Umar used to rent his farms, in return for a portion of its yield, until he was informed that Rafi' Ibn Khadij forbade that, and said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land." He said: "We used to rent our land before even we knew Rafi'." But he found something suspicious within himself, thereupon he placed his hand on my shoulder (and walked) until we reached Rafi'. Abdullah asked him: "Did you hear that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having forbidden renting the land?" Rafi' said: "I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Do not rent the land for anything (out of its yield)."

3921- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land.

3922- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: We used to rent our land for a fixed amount of crops, and we saw no harm in that until Rafi' Ibn Khadij pretended that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land for a fixed amount of crops.

3923- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Dinar that he said: I was present when Ibn Umar was asked about renting the land for a fixed amount of crops, and he said: "We saw no harm in that until Rafi' Ibn Khadij told us last year that he heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having forbidden renting the land for a fixed amount of crops.

3924- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Dinar that he said: I heard Ibn Umar having said: " We saw no harm in renting the land for a fixed amount of crops, until when it was the last year, Rafi' Ibn Khadij pretended that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade it.

3926- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade me to practice Mukhabarah (renting the land for a fixed amount of the crops), Muhaqalah (renting the field for a specific share of its yield), and Muzabanah (selling fresh fruits for dry fruits of the same kind with measure which leads to disputes among the people as being based upon dangers and mistakes).

3927- It is narrated on the authority of both Ibn Umar and Jabir: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling the fruits until their benefit seems evident; and he also forbade Mukhabarah, i.e. to lent the land for one-third or one-fourth (its yield).

3928- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Rafi': "Do you rent your fields?" he said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah. We rent them in return for the yield produced at the banks of the water streams for the rental fee, as well as for (a definite amount of crops such as) Wasaqs of parley." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so. Cultivate them by yourselves, or lend them (to others to cultivate them), otherwise, keep them (uncultivated)."

3929- It is narrated on the authority of Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: My uncle Zuhair Ibn Rafi' came to me and said: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing which was a source of benefit to us." I said: "What is that?" he said: "Whatever Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" says is right. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked me: "What do you do with your farms?" I replied: "O Messenger of Allah! We get our farms rented on the basis that we get the yield produced at the banks of the water streams for the rental fee, or rent them for some Wasaqs of dates or barley." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not do so, but cultivate them yourselves or let them be cultivated by others gratis, or keep them uncultivated."

3930- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Rafi' Ibn Khadij that the brother of Rafi' said to his people: "Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to do a thing which was a source of benefit to us, even though his command should be followed, since there is good in it. He forbade renting the field in return for a specific share of its yield."

3931- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Rafi' Ibn Khadij that they were forbidden to do Muhaqalah, i.e. to rent a piece of land in return for a definite portion of its yield.

3932- It is narrated on the authority of Isa Ibn Sahl Ibn Rafi' Ibn Khadij that he said: I was an orphan under the guardianship of my grandfather Rafi' Ibn Khadij until I grew up and became a man, and I performed Hajj with him. My brother Imran Ibn Sahl Ibn Rafi' Ibn Khadij came to him and said: "O my father! We've given our land to such and such a lady on lease of one hundred Dirhams." He said: "O my son! Leave that and Allah Almighty will provide you with sustenance from other sources. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade renting the land (for a fixed amount of crops)."

3933- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Thabit that he said: Allah might forgive for Rafi' Ibn Khadij! I, by Allah, have better knowledge of the narration than he. Two men fell in dispute (over the rented land), thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If this is your affair, then, do not rent the farms." Rafi' heard his statement 'Do not rent the farms'.

Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says:

This is a document of sharecropping on the condition that all the seeds and agricultural costs are due upon the landlord, and the farmer should have one-fourth the yield produced by Allah Almighty from the land:

"So and so, son of so and so, son of so and so, warrants that he has the authority and power to write this document, to so and so, son of so and so: 'You've given me the whole of your land in such and such a place, in such and such a city, by way of sharecropping; and it is the land known as such and such, and it is limited within four borders, one of which is neighbouring such and such a place, and so are the second, the third, and the fourth: you've given me the whole of your land limited herein by its borders, which are surrounding it, with all its rights, sources of water, rivers, and agricultural equipment, as a white empty ground, in which there are no sowed plants, for a whole year, beginning from the first day of such and such a month, of such and such a year, and ending at the end of such and such a month of such and such a year, on the condition that I should cultivate the whole of this land limited herein, whose very location is described hereof, for this year temporarily, from its beginning to its ending, whenever I like and whatever it seems to me to cultivate in it such crops as wheat, parley, beans, sesame, rice, cotton, fruits, grains, lentil, snake-cucumber, watermelon, carrot, onion,

[46] The Different Wording Pertaining To Sharecropping

3934- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Awn that he said: Muhammad used to say: "In my thought, the land (as far as sharecropping is concerned) is just like the property of speculation, and what is fitting for such property of speculation is also fitting for the land, and what is not fitting for the former is also not fitting for the latter." On the other hand, he saw no harm to give the land to a farmer, on the condition that he would work in it with his own hand, and through his offspring and assistants, and cows, spending nothing on it, since the agricultural costs would be due upon the landlord.

3935- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the date-palms of Khaibar to the Jews of Khaibar to look after them on their expense, on the condition that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and the Muslims) should have half the yield.

3936- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave the date-palms and the land of Khaibar to the Jews of Khaibar to look after them on their expense, on the condition that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and the Muslims) should have half the fruits.

3937- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: During the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", the farms used to be rented on the condition that the landlord should have what would grow on the bank of the spring, from which the water would gush forth, in addition to a definite amount of fodder, and I do not know how much it was.

3938- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Al-Aswad that he said: Both my paternal uncles used to cultivate the land in return for one-third or one-fourth (the yield), and my father was their partner, and although both Alqamah and Al-Aswad knew that, they made no change in it.

3939- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: "The best thing you are to do (as far as sharecropping is concerned) is that anyone of you should rent his land in return for gold and silver (i.e. money)."

3940- It is narrated on the authority of both Ibrahim and Sa'id Ibn Jubair that they saw no harm in renting the white land (to cultivate for money).

3941- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad that he said: I do not know but that Shuraih passed two judgements concerning a speculator: sometimes, he said to him: "Bring about an evidence that a calamity has befallen you, therewith you might be excused." Sometimes he said to the property owner: "Bring about an evidence that your agent is treacherous, otherwise, let him take an oath by Allah that he has not betrayed you."

3942- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that he said: There is no harm in renting the white land for gold and silver. He further said: If one gives money to another for the purpose of speculation and wants to write a document on that, he should write as follows: "This is a document written by so and so, son of so and so, out of his own accord, with the warranty of authority and power to do so, in favour of so and so, son of so and so: 'You've given me, in the beginning of such and such a month, in such and such a year, say, ten thousand Dirhams, in a state of soundness, each weighing seven weights, by way of speculation on the basis of Allah's

3945- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst the things of this world, both women and perfume were made lovable to me; and the delight of my eye was made in the prayer."

3946- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Both women and perfume were made lovable to me; and the delight of my eye was made in the prayer."

3947- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Nothing was dearer to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" after women than horses.

[2] A Man Gives Preference To Any Of His Wives Over The Others

3948- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who has two wives (or more), to one of whom he gives preference over the other, he will come on the Day of Judgement while inclined on one of his sides."

3949- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to fix day-and-night-turns for his wives, and do justice with all of them, and then say: "O Allah! This is my conduct in that which is within my capacity: so, do not blame me for that which is within Your Power, even though it is beyond my capacity."

[3] A Man Loves One Of His Wives More Than Others

3950- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Fatimah, the daughter of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she sought his permission to be admitted, and he was lying with me under my covering, and he admitted her. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Your wives sent me, asking you to give no preference to the daughter of Abu Quhafah." I kept silent. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O my daughter! Do you not love whomever I love?" she answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to her: "Then, love this (A'ishah)!" when Fatimah heard that from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", she stood up (and left). She returned to the wives of Allah's Apostle

3950 - أَخْبَرَنِي عُيَيْنُدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَعْدِ بْنِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ بْنِ سَعْدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا عَمِّي قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا أَبِي عَنْ صَالِحٍ عَنْ ابْنِ شِهَابٍ قَالَ: أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ الْحَارِثِ بْنِ هِشَامٍ أَنَّ عَائِشَةَ قَالَتْ: أَرْسَلَ أَزْوَاجَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ فَاطِمَةَ بِنْتُ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَاسْتَأْذَنْتْ عَلَيْهِ وَهُوَ مُضْطَجِعٌ مَعِيَ فِي مِرْطِي فَأَذِنَ لَهَا فَقَالَتْ: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّ أَزْوَاجَكَ أَرْسَلْتَنِي إِلَيْكَ يَسْأَلُنَكَ الْعَدْلَ فِي ابْنَةِ أَبِي فُحَّافَةَ وَأَنَا سَاكِتَةٌ فَقَالَ لَهَا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: «أَيُّ بَنِيهِ أَلَسْتَ تُحِبِّينَ مَنْ أَحَبُّ؟» قَالَتْ: بَلَى قَالَ: «فَأَجِبِي هَذِهِ». فَقَامَتْ فَاطِمَةُ حِينَ سَمِعَتْ ذَلِكَ مِنْ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَارْجَعَتْ إِلَى أَزْوَاجِ

"Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told them of what she said to him and what he said to her. They said to her: "We do not think you've sufficed us in this matter. Return to Allah's Apostle 'Allah's blessing and peace be upon him' and say to him: 'Your wives beseech you to give no preference to the daughter of Abu Quhafah.'" Fatimah said: "No, by Allah, I will never talk to him about her." A'ishah added: The wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Zainab Bint Jahsh to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was she, from amongst the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who was equal to me in position in the sight of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"; and I've never seen a woman, better in religion, more Allah-fearing, truer in speech, more ready to keep good relation with her kith and kin, and give in charity, more wholeheartedly devoted in her work therewith she used to give in charity and come nearer to Allah Almighty than Zainab Bint Jahsh, except that she was hasty to grow angry, even though she would soon become quiet. She sought the permission of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to be admitted, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was still lying with A'ishah under her covering, in the same state, in which he was when Fatimah had come to him earlier, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" admitted her. She said: "O Messenger of Allah! Your wives sent me asking you to give no preference to the daughter of Abu Quhafah." Then, she went on abusing me so much, and I was watching Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and watching his eye-wink, and whether he had allowed me to reply to her. However, Zainab did not leave before I came to know that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not dislike me to defend myself. As soon as I had started abusing her (in reply to her insults), I silenced her. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is really the daughter of Abu Bakr (who has power to defend herself well)."

3951- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said the same, in which she said: The wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Zainab Bint Jahsh to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she sought his permission to be admitted, and he admitted her and said the same as the previous narration.

3952- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: The wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered together and agreed to send Fatimah, the daughter of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", with the message that he should give no preference to A'ishah, the daughter of Abu Quhafah. She came and entered upon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", while he was lying with A'ishah under her covering. She said: "Your wives sent me, asking you to give no preference to the daughter of Abu Quhafah." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O my daughter! Do you really love me?" she answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to her: "Then, love this (A'ishah)!" when Fatimah heard that from Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", she stood up (and left). She returned to the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and told them of what he said to her. They said to her: "You've did nothing of benefit to us in this matter. Return to him once again." Fatimah said: "No, by Allah, I will never return to talk to him about her." However, she was really the daughter of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". A'ishah added: The wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Zainab Bint Jahsh to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and it was she, from amongst the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who was equal to me in position in the sight of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". She said: "Your wives sent me to you, and they beseech you to give no preference to the daughter of Abu Quhafah." Then, she went on abusing me so much, and I was watching Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and watching his eye-wink, and whether he had allowed me to defend myself. She abused me so much and I thought he did not dislike me to defend myself against her, thereupon I faced her and I had no sooner (gone on abusing her) than I silenced her. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "This is really the daughter of Abu Bakr (who has power to defend herself well)." A'ishah further said: I've never seen a woman, better in religion, more Allah-fearing, truer in speech, more ready to keep good relation with her kith and kin, and give in charity, more wholeheartedly devoted in every deed therewith she would come nearer to Allah Almighty than Zainab Bint Jahsh, except that she was hasty to grow angry, even though she would soon become quiet.

3953- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Musa that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The superiority of A'ishah to the other women is like the superiority of porridge with meat to all kinds of food."

3954- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The superiority of A'ishah to the other women is like the superiority of porridge with meat to all kinds of food."

3955- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Umm Salamah! Do not harm me pertaining to A'ishah, for by Allah, the Divine Revelation has not come upon me while being in the covering of any woman of you barring she."

3956- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that the wives of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked her to talk to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the fact that the people always waited the day on which Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would visit A'ishah in order to present their gifts, and (asked her to) say to him: "Of a surety, we like good in the same way as you like A'ishah." She talked to him, but he gave her no reply. When he visited her on his day-and-night turn, she talked to him once again, but he gave no reply. When they asked her about what he had said to her, she said: "He gave no reply to me." They said: "Do not leave him until he should give reply to you, or see what he would say to you." When he visited her on the day of her turn and she talked to him, he said: "Do not harm me concerning A'ishah, for indeed, the Divine Revelation has never come upon me in the covering of anyone of you but A'ishah."

3957- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that the people used to expect for the day of A'ishah whenever they liked to present their gifts, seeking the good pleasure of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (because of their knowledge of the fact that the Prophet loved her more than he loved anyone of his wives).

3958- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was Divinely revealed by Allah while I was with him (for he was in my house), thereupon I stood up and closed the door between him and me; and when this state was over he said to me: "O A'ishah! Gabriel pays you salutation."

3959- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "Gabriel pays you salutation." She said: "Peace, Allah's Mercy and Blessing be upon him! No doubt, you see what we see not."

3960- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O A'ishah! This Gabriel, and he pays you salutation..." and the rest is the same.

[4] What About Jealousy?

3961- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: Once, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was in the house of one of the Mothers of the Believers, when another sent a bowl containing food, thereupon she (in whose house he was) struck the hand of the servant, and the bowl fell down and got broken. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the two fragments (of the bowl), and joined them, in which he started gathering the food, while saying: "Your mother has become jealous! You might eat!" they kept eating until she brought her bowl which was in her house; and he gave the unbroken bowl to the servant, and kept the broken one in the house of such as broke it.

3962- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she sent food in a bowl to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his companions. At the same time, A'ishah came wrapping herself in a garment, and having a small stone in her hand, therewith she broke the bowl. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gathered the two fragments of the bowl and said twice: "Eat! Your Mother (A'ishah) has become jealous!" then the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took the bowl of A'ishah and sent it to Umm Salamah, and gave Umm Salamah the (unbroken) bowl of A'ishah.

3963- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I've never a cooker more excellent than Safiyyah (Bint Huyai, the Prophet's wife). She presented a vessel containing food to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I could not help breaking it. Then, I asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about its expiation, thereupon he said: "(You should give her) A utensil like her utensil, contains food like the food (it contained)."

3964- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to spend some time in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and drink honey there. So Hafsa and I agreed secretly that, if he should come to either of us, she will say to him: "It seems you have eaten Maghafir (a kind of bad-smelling resin), for I smell in you the smell of Maghafir." When he entered upon one of us, we said that to him. He replied: "No, but I was drinking honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and I shall never take it again." Then Allah revealed: "O Prophet! Why do you hold to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to you? You do seek to please your consorts. But Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 1) he also said: "If you two turn in repentance to Him (meaning Hafsa and A'ishah), your hearts are indeed so inclined." (4) He also said: "When the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his consorts (meaning The Prophet's saying: "I drank honey"), and she divulged it (to another)." (3)

3964 - أَخْبَرَنَا الْحَسَنُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ الرَّعْفَرَانِيُّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجٌ عَنْ ابْنِ جُرَيْجٍ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ أَنَّهُ سَمِعَ عُبَيْدَ بْنَ عُمَيْرٍ يَقُولُ سَمِعْتُ عَائِشَةَ تَزْعُمُ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ كَانَ يَمْكُثُ عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ فَيَشْرِبُ عِنْدَهَا عَسَلًا فَتَوَاصَيْتُ أَنَا وَحَفْصَةُ أَنْ أَتَيْنَا دَخَلَ عَلَيْهَا النَّبِيُّ ﷺ فَلْتَقُلْ إِنِّي أَجِدُ مِنْكَ رِيحَ مَغَافِيرَ أَكَلْتَ مَغَافِيرَ فَدَخَلَ عَلَى إِحْدَاهُمَا فَقَالَتْ ذَلِكَ لَهُ فَقَالَ: «لَا بَلْ شَرِبْتُ عَسَلًا عِنْدَ زَيْنَبَ بِنْتِ جَحْشٍ وَلَنْ أَعُودَ لَهُ». فَتَزَلْتُ «يَتَأْتِيهَا النَّبِيُّ لِمَ تُحَرِّمُ مَا أَحَلَّ اللَّهُ لَكَ» إِلَى قَوْلِهِ:

3965- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had a slave-girl with whom he used to have sexual relation, and Hafsa and A'ishah kept asking him pressingly (to forbid her to him) until he forbade her from him. On that occasion Allah revealed: "O Prophet! Why do you hold to be forbidden that which Allah has made lawful to you? You do seek to please your consorts. But Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Prohibition "At-Tahrim" 1)

3966- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I searched for Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and did not find him lying beside me) and I got my hand (into the mosque through the curtain and it touched) his hair. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Has your companions from amongst the Satans come to you (and gave you the false impression that I've gone to anyone of my wives)?" I said to him: "Do you not have a companion from amongst the Satans?" he said: "Yes, but Allah Almighty helped me over him until he embraced Islam (and thus I've become safe from his evil)."

3967- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I missed Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and did not find him lying beside me) on one night, and I thought he had gone to anyone of his wives. I looked for him and behold! He was in the state of either bowing or prostrating, uttering the following supplication: "Glorified be You, and with Your Praises (I exalt You): there is no god (to be worshipped) but You." On that I said: "Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! You are occupied by a serious matter, and I'm thinking of another matter."

3968- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: I missed Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (and did not find him lying beside me) on one night, and I thought he had gone to anyone of his wives. I looked for him and then returned, and behold! He was in the state of either bowing or prostrating, uttering the following supplication: "Glorified be You, and with Your Praises (I exalt You): there is no god (to be worshipped) but You." On that I said: "Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! You are occupied by a serious matter, and I'm thinking of another matter."

3969- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Qais Ibn Makhramah that he said: I heard A'ishah having said: Would I not narrate to you about myself and about The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? We said: Yes. She said: When it was my turn for The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to spend the night with me, he returned (from Isha prayer), put off his mantle and took off his shoes which he put near his feet, and spread (the corner of) his shawl on his bed and then lay down. He kept lying until he thought that I slept. He put on the shoes slowly, took his garment slowly, opened the door, went out and then closed it lightly. I covered my head, put on my veil, tightened my waist sheet, and then followed him until he reached Baqi, where he raised his hands thrice and stood for a long time. Then, he returned and I also returned. He hastened his steps and I also hastened mine. He ran and so did I. He came (to the house) and so did I. I preceded him and entered (the house). As soon as I had lain down, he entered (the house) and said: "What is the reason O A'ishah, that you are out of breath?" I said: "There is nothing." He said: "Either you should tell me or (Allah) the Clever, the Well-Aware would tell me." I said: "O Messenger of Allah! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!" I told him (what had happened). He said: "Were you that person I saw in front of me?" I answered in the affirmative. He pushed me in my chest, which pained me. Then he said: "Did you think that Allah and His Messenger would wrong you?" She said: "Whatever people conceal, Allah will know it." He said: "Gabriel "Peace be upon him" came to me when you saw me, and he was not to enter into you since you put off your dress. He called me and he hid it from you. I answered him, and I hid it from you. I thought that you had slept, and I (disliked to awaken you, for) fear that you may be frightened. He (Gabriel) ordered me to go to the inhabitants of (the graves of) Baqi and ask for (Allah's) forgiveness for them."

(38) THE BOOK OF PROHIBITION OF BLOOD

It is unlawful for a Muslim to shed the blood of another with no just cause; and even if there is a just cause to do so legally, this matter is up to the authority, and not to the individuals to do that by themselves.

3972- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded (by Allah) to fight the pagans until they bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger: if they bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is His servant and Messenger, offer (the obligatory) prayers like us, face our Qiblah (in their prayers), and eat the (meat of the) slaughtered animals slain in accordance with our way, then, their blood and property should become unlawful for us, except legally."

3973- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded (by Allah) to fight the people until they bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah: if they bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, face our Qiblah (in their prayers), eat the (meat of the) slaughtered animals slain in accordance with our way, and offer (the obligatory) prayers like us, then, their blood and property should become unlawful for us, except legally, and in this way they come to have whatever rights the Muslims have, and bear whatever obligations the Muslims bear."

3974- It is narrated on the authority of Maimun Ibn Siyah that he asked Anas Ibn Malik: "O Abu Hamzah! What should make unlawful the blood and property of a Muslim?" he said: "He, who bears testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, face our Qiblah (in their prayers), offer (the obligatory) prayers like us, and eat the (meat of the) slaughtered animals slain in accordance with our way, then, he is then a Muslim, who has whatever rights the Muslims have, and bears whatever obligations the Muslims bear."

3975- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died and some Arabs renegaded (reverted to disbelief, and Abu Bakr decided to declare war against them), Umar said: "O Abu Bakr! How can you fight the Arabs?" Abu Bakr said: "The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight the people till they bear testimony to the fact that There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that I'm the Messenger of Allah, establish the obligatory prayer and give the regular charity." By Allah! If they refuse to pay me even a she-kid which they used to give at the time of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would fight with them for it." Umar said: "When I saw that (the chest of) Abu Bakr was expanded to his decision, I came to know that his decision was right."

3976- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" died and Abu Bakr became the caliph some Arabs renegaded (reverted to disbelief, and Abu Bakr decided to declare war against them), Umar said: "O Abu Bakr! How can you fight with these people although The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight the people till they say: "There is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah", and whoever says it has indeed saved his life and property from me except legally (i.e. on trespassing the law, rights and conditions for which he will be punished justly), and his account will be with Allah"?" Abu Bakr said: "By Allah! I will fight those who differentiate between prayer and obligatory charity. By Allah! If they refuse to pay me even a she-kid which they used to pay at the time of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", I would fight with them for withholding it." Umar said: "By Allah, it was nothing but I saw that Allah opened Abu Bakr's chest towards the decision to fight that I came to know that his decision was right."

3977- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I've been commanded (by Allah Almighty) to fight the people until they say that "there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah": if they say that, they will protect their blood and property from me except legally, and their reckoning will be with Allah." When it was the time of apostasy, Umar said to Abu Bakr: "Should you fight them, even though you have heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying such and such?" he said: "By Allah! I'm not to differentiate between obligatory prayer and regular charity, and I'm going to fight such as differentiates between them." We then fought beside him, and came to know that his decision was right.

4007- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Abbas: "Is there any repentance to be accepted from such as kills a faithful believer intentionally?" he said: "No." I recited to him the following Holy Verse from the Surah of Al-Furqan: " Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication, and any that does this (not only) meets punishment... 4009- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that some people committed killing, in which they transgressed all the due bounds, committed fornication in which they exceeded all the due limits, and violated all taboos. He killed me!" (He will keep saying so and moving forward) until he draws him near the Throne (of Authority)." They mentioned to Ibn Abbas the possibility of repentance, thereupon he recited: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever): and the wrath and the curse of Allah are upon him, and a dreadful penalty is prepared for him." (An-Nisa <sup>93</sup>) then he said: "It was not abrogated since it was revealed: and how should his repentance be acceptable?"

They asked him about the major sins, thereupon The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They are to join anything with Allah (in service), to kill a Muslim soul (illegally), and to flee away (from the battlefield) on the day of the fight."

Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (to embrace Islam) and they said: "O Messenger of Allah! We are the owners of milch livestock (i.e. Bedouins) and not farmers (i.e. countrymen)." They found the climate of Medina unsuitable for them. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that they should be provided with some milch camels and a shepherd and ordered them to go out of Medina and to drink the camels' milk and urine (as medicine). But, when they recovered, and at that time they were near Al-Harrah (the rocky ground of Medina), they reverted to Heathenism after embracing Islam, and killed the shepherd of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and drove away the camels. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent some people in pursuit of them. (So they were caught and brought back. He then gave his command and their eyes were branded with pieces of iron and their hands and legs were cut off, and they were left in Al-Harrah in that very state till they died.

They found the climate of Medina unsuitable for them. So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered that they should go out with some milch camels of those given in charity, and drink from their milk and urine (as medicine). But, (when they recovered) they killed the shepherd and renegaded from Islam and drove away the camels. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent some people in pursuit of them. So they were caught and brought back. He then gave his command and their eyes were branded with pieces of iron and their hands and legs were cut off, and they were thrown away in Al-Harrah (till they died). Anas said: I saw one of them biting the ground out of severe thirst.

people barring four men and two women, and said: "Kill them even though you find them hanging in the curtains of the Ka'bah." They were: Ikrimah Ibn Abu Jahl, Abdullah Ibn Khatal, Maqis Ibn Subabah, and Abdullah Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Sarh. As for Abdullah Ibn Khatal, he was caught while hanging in the curtains of the Ka'bah, and both Sa'id Ibn Huraith and Ammar Ibn Yasir hastened as in a race to kill him, but Sa'id, who was younger, preceded Ammar and killed him. As to Maqis Ibn Subabah, he was caught by the people in the market and killed there. As for Ikrimah, he sailed aboard the sea, and they were attacked by a tempestuous storm, thereupon the people of the ship said: "Be pure in faith, for your gods will not avail you here in the least." Ikrimah said: "By Allah! If nothing barring the purity of faith should save me in the sea, then, nothing other than it will save me in the land. O Allah! I pledge that if You deliver me here, I will come to Muhammad "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and put my hand into his (and give him the pledge of allegiance), and of a surety, I will find him oft forgiving, most generous." He then came and embraced Islam. As for Abdullah Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Sarh, he was hidden in the house of Uthman Ibn Affan, and when The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called the people to come and give him the pledge of allegiance, he brought him, and made him stand near The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Accept the pledge of allegiance from Abdullah!" he raised his head, and caught a glimpse of him. This happened thrice, at each of which he refused to accept it from him, after which he accepted from him the pledge of allegiance. Then, he faced his companions and said: "Is there not among you a sound-minded man to stand to this man and kill him when he saw me having withheld my hand from accepting from him the pledge of allegiance?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! How does we come to know such intention as you have in yourself? Why have you not hinted to us with the help of your eye?" on that he said: "It is not fitting for a Prophet to have eye-tricks."

[15] The Repentance Of The Apostate

4074- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that a man from amongst the Ansar embraced Islam and then he renegaded from Islam and joined the pagans. But later he regretted and sent to his people a message in which he said: "Ask for me The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" whether my repentance would be accepted (if I turn to Allah in repentance)." His people went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said to him: "So and so showed regret, and he told us to ask you whether his repentance would be accepted (if he turned to Allah in repentance)." On that occasion the following was revealed:

(15) - تَوْبَةُ الْمُرْتَدِّ

4074 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ بَزِيعٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا يَزِيدُ وَهُوَ ابْنُ زُرَيْعٍ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا دَاوُدُ عَنْ عِكْرِمَةَ عَنْ ابْنِ عَبَّاسٍ قَالَ: كَانَ رَجُلٌ مِنَ الْأَنْصَارِ أَسْلَمَ ثُمَّ ارْتَدَّ وَلَحِقَ بِالشَّرِكِ ثُمَّ تَنَدَّمَ فَأَرْسَلَ إِلَى قَوْمِهِ سَلُّوا لِي رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ هَلْ لِي مِنْ تَوْبَةٍ؟ فَجَاءَ قَوْمُهُ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالُوا: إِنَّ فُلَانًا قَدْ نَدِمَ وَإِنَّهُ أَمَرَنَا أَنْ نَسْأَلَكَ

" How shall Allah guide those who reject Faith after they accepted it and bore witness that the Messenger was true and that Clear Signs had come unto them? But Allah guides not a people unjust... Except for those that repent (even) after that, and make amends; for verily Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (Al Imran 86:89) he sent (with that) to him, thereupon he embraced Islam (once again).

4075- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that pertaining to Allah's saying in the Surah of An-Nahl: " Anyone who, after accepting Faith in Allah, utters Unbelief, - except under compulsion, his heart remaining firm in Faith - but such as open their breast to Unbelief, on them is Wrath from Allah, and theirs will be a dreadful Penalty" (106), it was partially abrogated by the following, with such exception as shown in it: " But verily your Lord, - to those who leave their homes after trials and persecutions, and who thereafter strive and fight for the Faith and patiently persevere – your Lord, after all this is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (110) the one meant here is Abdullah Ibn Sa'd Ibn Abu Sarh, who was the governor of Egypt (after Amr Ibn Al-As): he was one of the scribes of the Divine Revelation of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". But Satan caused him to slip away, and he joined the infidels, and the Prophet ordered that he be killed on the day of the conquest (of Mecca). But Uthman Ibn Affan asked security for him, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave him security.

[16] The Judgement Pertaining To Such As Insults The Prophet

4076- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman Ash-Shahham that he said: I was leading a blind man, until I reached (the gathering of) Ikrimah, who told us from Ibn Abbas that he said: During the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" there was a blind man who had a (slave-girl who gave birth of a child from him and thus became) a child's mother, from whom he had two children. She used to abuse the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and insult him, and every time he forbade her, she would not desist, and every time he scolded her, she would not stop from that. (He said) When it was one night, I made a mention of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" thereupon she went on abusing and insulting him, thereupon I could not keep patient: I stood up, picked up the knife and placed (the edge of the blade of) it into her abdomen and reclined against it, with the result that I killed her, and thus she was murdered. When it was morning, a mention of that was made to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who gathered the people and said: "I beseech you by

The blind man stood up passing over the people while wavering until he stood in front of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm her master, and she is the mother of my two sons, and at the same time she was kindly gentle towards me, and I have two sons from her (as pretty and beautiful) as two pearls. But even, she used to abuse and insult you, and every time I forbade her, she would not desist, and every time I scolded her, she would not stop from that. When it was the last night, I made a mention of you, and she went on abusing and insulting you, thereupon I picked up the knife and placed (the edge of the blade of) it into her abdomen and reclined against it, and I killed her." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! Be witnesses to the fact that her blood has been lawful (to be shed)."

4077- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Barzah Al-Aslami that he said: A man spoke harshly to Abu Bakr As-Siddiq (while he was the caliph), thereupon I said to him: "Let me kill him!" he repulsed me and said: "This (killing only for insult) is not fitting for anyone after the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"."

4102- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Ja'far that he said: I was sitting with Suwaid Ibn Muqarrin when he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Whoever is killed in defense of (what is usurped from him with) injustice, he is then a martyr."

[26] When One Unsheathes His Sword Therewith He Strikes People

4103- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Az-Zubair that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who unsheathes his sword therewith he strikes the people, his blood becomes lawful (to be shed, with no retribution nor blood-money to be for him)."

4104- A Hadith like this is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Razzaq, through a similar chain of transmission.

So the Quraish and the Ansar became angry and said: "He (the Prophet) gives the chiefs of Najd and does not give us." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I give them so as to attract their hearts (to Islam)." Then a man with sunken eyes, prominent cheeks, a thick beard and a shaven head, came in front of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "Fear Allah, O Muhammad!" The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? (Is it fair that) Allah has entrusted all the people of the earth to me while you do not trust me?" Somebody from amongst the present people requested The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to let him kill that man, but he prevented him. When the man left, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "From amongst the offspring of this man there will be some who

They will kill the Muslims but will not disturb the idolaters If I should live up to their time' I will kill them as the people of Ad were killed (i.e. I will ruin them entirely)."

4108- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Towards the end of this time there will appear some young foolish people who will use (in their claim) the best speech of all people (The Qur'an), and their faith will not go beyond their throats (because They will have practically no belief). They will abandon Islam as an arrow goes out through the game. So wherever you meet them, kill them, for he who kills them shall get a reward for that on the Day of Judgement."

4109- It is narrated on the authority of Sharik Ibn Shihab that he said: I had a wish to meet one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", in order to ask him about Khawarij (religious secessionists) and I met Abu Barzah among a group of his companions on an Id day thereupon I asked him: Have you heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saying something pertaining to Khawarij (religious secessionists)? He said: Yes: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with my ears, and saw him with my eyes. Once, some property was brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and he distributed it: he gave those on both his right and left sides, and he gave nothing to those who were behind him. A black man of shaven head with two white garments from those behind him stood up and said: "O Muhammad! You've not done justice in this distribution." On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" grew so much angry and said: "By Allah! You will never find, after me, anyone more fair and just than I." he further added: "Towards the end of the time, some people, and this man seems to be one of them, will appear, and they will recite the Qur'an but the Qur'an will not reach beyond their collar-bones(i.e. they will recite like parrots and will not understand it nor act on its rules and principles), and they will renegade from the religion as an arrow goes through the game's body; and shaving the head will be characteristic of them. They will keep appearing (from time to time) until the last of them will come out with Al-Masih Ad-Dajjal. Wherever (and whenever) you meet them, kill them for indeed, they are the worst of creatures."

(39) THE BOOK OF DISTRIBUTING FAI'

(the booty gained with no war, i.e. no cavalry nor camelry of the Muslims take part to get it, and in some cases, it is gained after the war is over. In this way, it is for all the Muslims in general, and no fifth should be reduced from it, nor should it be distributed in the same way of distributing the war spoils).

4139- It is narrated on the authority of Yazid Ibn Hurmuz that when Najdah Al-Haruri rebelled during the affliction of Ibn Az-Zubair, he sent to Ibn Abbas asking him about the share of the near relatives: "Whose is it in your sight?" he said: "It is for us, the near relatives of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to whom The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" assigned it. Umar suggested to give us something which we thought was lesser than our due right, thereupon we rejected it." Umar however suggested to help such as intends to marry among them, fulfill the debt of the debtor among them, and give the poor among them, and he rejected to give them more than that. (The share meant here is that referred to in Allah's statement: " And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah, and to the Messenger, and to near relatives, orphans, the needy, and the wayfarer..." (Al-Anfal 41)

4140- It is narrated on the authority of Yazid Ibn Hurmuz that he said: Najdah sent a letter to Ibn Abbas, asking him about the share of the near relatives (from the war booty): "Whose is it?" Ibn Abbas sent a letter to him, and it is I who wrote the letter of Ibn Abbas to Najdah, in which he said: "You've sent a letter to me, asking me about the share of the near relatives (from the war booty): 'Whose is it?' of a surety, it is for us, the family of the house (of the Messenger of Allah). Umar invited us to help such as has no spouse among us remarry from it, to give the poor dependent among us from it, and fulfill the debt of the debtor among us from it, but we rejected unless he should hand it to us entirely, and when he rejected, we left it for him."

4141- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Awza'i that Umar Ibn Abd Al-Aziz sent a message to Umar Ibn Al-Walid in which he said: "The portion which your father (Al-Walid) has fixed for you according to which he has given you the whole fifth (of the war booty is wrongful) for the share of your father is no more than a share of everyone of the Muslims; and in that (fifth) there is the right of Allah, the right of the Messenger, the near relatives, the orphans, the indigent needy, the wayfarers. So, how many the foes of your father will be on the Day of Judgement! How should such as has a lot of foes

4142- It is narrated on the authority of Jubair Ibn Mut'im that he told that both he and Uthman Ibn Affan went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to talk to him about his distributing one-fifth the booty of Hunain among Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib, sons of Abd Manaf, saying: "O Messenger of Allah! You have distributed it among our brothers from Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib, sons of Abd Manaf, and gave nothing to us, even though we (Banu Abd Shams) are of the same (degree of) kinship." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I think it is Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib who are of the same (degree of kinship)." Jubair further said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave neither Banu Abd Shams nor Banu Nawfal anything from that one-fifth, as he gave Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib.

4143- It is narrated on the authority of Jubair Ibn Mut'im that he said: When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed the share of his kinship among Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib, and assigned nothing to Banu Abd Shams and Banu Nawfal, I and Uthman Ibn Affan went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Those are our brethren from amongst Banu Hashim, and we do not deny their superiority in view of the position in which Allah Almighty has placed you from them: why have you given our brethren from Banu Al-Muttalib and left us, even though we all are of the same (degree of) kinship from you?" on that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "They (Banu Al-Muttalib) have not left me whether during the period of ignorance or Islam. Both Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib are of the same (kinship)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then interlaced his fingers.

4144- It is narrated on the authority of Ubadah Ibn As-Samit that he said: When it was the day of (the holy battle of) Hunain, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" took hold of a single hair from the side of a camel and said: "O people! Out of what Allah has bestowed upon you (from this booty), nothing, (even as little) as this (single hair) is lawful for me (to take) more than the fifth, and this fifth is brought back to you."

4145- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing

4144 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنُ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَحْبُوبٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ مُوسَى قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو إِسْحَاقَ وَهُوَ الْفَزَارِيُّ عَنْ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنِ عِيَّاشٍ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ بْنِ مُوسَى عَنْ مَكْحُولٍ عَنْ أَبِي سَلَامٍ عَنْ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ الْبَاهِلِيِّ عَنْ عُبَادَةَ بْنِ الصَّامِتِ قَالَ: أَخَذَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَوْمَ حُنَيْنٍ وَبَرَةً مِنْ جَنْبِ بَعِيرٍ فَقَالَ: «يَا أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ إِنَّهُ لَا يَحِلُّ لِي مِمَّا أَقَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْكُمْ قَدْرُ هَذِهِ إِلَّا الْخُمُسُ وَالْخُمُسُ مَرْدُودٌ عَلَيْكُمْ».

قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ: أَسْمُ أَبِي سَلَامٍ: مَمْطُورٌ وَهُوَ حَبَشِيٌّ، وَأَسْمُ أَبِي أُمَامَةَ: صُدِيُّ بْنُ عَجَلَانَ وَاللَّهُ تَعَالَى أَعْلَمُ.

4145 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ يَزِيدَ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا ابْنُ أَبِي عَدِيٍّ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَمَّادُ بْنُ سَلَمَةَ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ شُعَيْبٍ عَنْ أَبِيهِ عَنْ جَدِّهِ: أَنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ

and peace be upon him” came near a camel and took hold of a single hair between his fingers from its hump and said: "Nothing out of that booty, and not even this (single hair) is lawful for me (to take) more than the fifth, and this fifth is brought back to you."

4146- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Aws Ibn Al-Hadthan that Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) said: The property of Banu An-Nadir which Allah bestowed upon His Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as Booty was not gained by the Muslims with their horses and camels (i.e. was not gained through war). He used to give his family their yearly expenditure from it, and spend what remained thereof on arms and horses to be used in Allah's Cause.

4147- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that Fatimah (daughter of the Prophet) sent to Abu Bakr (a message) asking him for her portion of the heritage left by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", from (what she came to know later that he left to be given in) charity, as well as from the one-fifth the property of Khaibar. On that Abu Bakr said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The property of) us (assembly of Prophets) should not be inherited."

4148- It is narrated on the authority of Ata' pertaining to Allah's statement: " And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah, and to the Messenger, to the near relatives...": It is the same one-fifth that belongs to Allah and His Messenger, out of which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to pay the blood-money (of such of Muslims as has no wherewithal to do), give in charity, disposes of it in the very way and manner he liked, and do with it what he liked to do.

4149- It is narrated on the authority of Muslim Ibn Qais that he said: I asked Al-Hasan Ibn Muhammad about (the significance of) Allah's statement: " And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah..." thereupon he said: "This is the beginning of Allah's speech, for indeed both the world and the hereafter (and what they contain, and not only one-fifth the booty) belong to Allah Almighty. He said: They differ about the way of distributing both shares after the death of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", i.e. the share of the Messenger, and the share of the near relatives. One said: "The share of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" should go to the caliph after him." Another one said: "The share of the near relatives should go to the kinship of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". A third one said: "The share of the near relatives 4146 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بْنُ سَعِيدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ عَنْ عَمْرِو بْنِ أَبِي أَسَدٍ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ مَالِكِ بْنِ أَوْسٍ بْنِ الْحَدَّانِ عَنْ عُمَرَ قَالَ: كَانَتْ أَمْوَالُ بَنِي النَّضِيرِ مِمَّا أَفَاءَ اللَّهُ عَلَى رَسُولِهِ مِمَّا لَمْ يُوجِفِ الْمُسْلِمُونَ عَلَيْهِ بِحَيْلٍ وَلَا رِكَابٍ فَكَانَ يُنْفِقُ عَلَى نَفْسِهِ مِنْهَا قُوتَ سَنَةٍ وَمَا بَقِيَ جَعَلَهُ فِي الْكِرَاعِ وَالسَّلَاحِ عِدَّةً فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ.

4147 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنُ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَحْبُوبٌ يَعْنِي أَبْنَ مُوسَى قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو إِسْحَاقَ هُوَ الْفَزَارِيُّ عَنْ شُعَيْبِ بْنِ أَبِي حَمْزَةَ عَنْ الزُّهْرِيِّ عَنْ عُروَةَ بْنِ الزُّبَيْرِ عَنْ عَائِشَةَ: أَنَّ فَاطِمَةَ أَرْسَلَتْ إِلَى أَبِي بَكْرٍ تَسْأَلُهُ مِيرَاثَهَا مِنَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ مِنْ صَدَقَتِهِ وَمِمَّا تَرَكَ مِنْ خُمْسٍ خَيْرَ قَالَ أَبُو بَكْرٍ: إِنَّ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ قَالَ: «لَا نُورُثُ».

4148 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ يَحْيَى قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَحْبُوبٌ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو إِسْحَاقَ عَنْ زَائِدَةَ عَنْ عَبْدِ الْمَلِكِ بْنِ أَبِي سُلَيْمَانَ عَنْ عَطَاءٍ فِي قَوْلِهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ ﴿وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ خُمُسَهُ وَلِلرَّسُولِ وَلِذِي الْقُرْبَى﴾ [الأنفال، الآية: 41] قَالَ: خُمُسُ اللَّهِ وَخُمُسُ رَسُولِهِ وَاحِدٌ. كَانَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ يَحْمِلُ مِنْهُ وَيُعْطِي مِنْهُ وَيَضَعُهُ حَيْثُ شَاءَ وَيَضْنَعُ بِهِ مَا شَاءَ.

4149 - أَخْبَرَنَا عَمْرُو بْنُ يَحْيَى بْنُ الْحَارِثِ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مَحْبُوبٌ يَعْنِي أَبْنَ مُوسَى قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا أَبُو إِسْحَاقَ هُوَ الْفَزَارِيُّ عَنْ سُفْيَانَ عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ مُسْلِمٍ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ الْحَسَنَ بْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ عَنْ قَوْلِهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ ﴿وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ خُمُسَهُ﴾. قَالَ: هَذَا مَفَاتِيحُ كَلَامِ اللَّهِ الدُّنْيَا وَالْآخِرَةُ لِلَّهِ قَالَ اخْتَلَفُوا فِي هَذَيْنِ السَّهْمَيْنِ بَعْدَ وَفَاءِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ سَهْمِ الرَّسُولِ وَسَهْمِ ذِي الْقُرْبَى فَقَالَ قَائِلٌ: سَهْمُ الرَّسُولِ ﷺ لِلْخَلِيفَةِ مِنْ بَعْدِهِ وَقَالَ قَائِلٌ: سَهْمُ ذِي الْقُرْبَى لِقَرَابَةِ الرَّسُولِ ﷺ.

should go to the kinship of the caliph." Lastly, they unanimously agreed upon assigning both shares to horses and war equipment in Allah's Cause. This remained during the caliphate of both Abu Bakr and Umar.

4150- It is narrated on the authority of Musa Ibn Abu A'ishah that he said: I asked Yahya Ibn Al-Jazzar about (the significance of) this Holy Verse: "And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah, and to the Messenger..." saying: "How much was assigned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" out of that fifth?" he said: "One-fifth the fifth."

4151- It is narrated on the authority of Mutarrif that he said: Ash-Sha'bi was asked about the share assigned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (other than the fifth), and the special share (he chose for himself), and he said: "As for the share assigned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", it was like the share of any Muslim; and as for the special share, it was a young slave, slave-girl, horse, camel, etc, to be chosen from such portion of the booty as he liked."

4152- It is narrated on the authority of Yazid Ibn Ash-Shakhir that he said: I was in the company of Mutarrif in the place of drying dates when a man came in, having a piece of red leather in his hand. He said: "This was written to me by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": does anyone of you read?" I said: "I read." Behold! It had the following: "From Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", to the sons of Zuhair Ibn Uqaish that if they bear testimony to the fact that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah, and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah, leave the pagans, and pay one-fifth the booty, the share of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the Prophet's special Chosen share, they then will have become safe with the safety of Allah and His Messenger."

4153- It is narrated on the authority of Mujahid that he said: As for the one-fifth assigned to Allah and His Messenger, it went to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and his kinship, who used not to eat the objects of charity. One-fifth the fifth was assigned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", one-fifth to his kinship, the like of that to the orphans, the like of that to the indigent needy, and the like of that to the wayfarers. Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says: Allah Almighty says: "And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah, and to the Messenger, and to near relatives, orphans, the needy, and the wayfarer..." (Al-Anfal 41)

قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ: قَالَ اللَّهُ جَلَّ ثَنَاؤُهُ ﴿وَأَعْلَمُوا أَنَّمَا غَنِمْتُمْ مِنْ شَيْءٍ فَإِنَّ لِلَّهِ

Allah's phrase "to Allah" is a beginning of His speech, for indeed all things belong to Allah Almighty (and not only this fifth). The reason why He Almighty commences His speech of the booty (that is gained with no war) and the one-fifth by making a mention of His Name seems to be for the fact that this booty is the best of earnings. On the other hand, He Almighty does not ascribe the objects of charity to Himself because they are the impurities of the property of people; and Allah Almighty knows better. It is said that something should be taken out of the booty and placed in the Ka'bah, i.e. the share that belongs to Allah Almighty. The share of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" goes to the imam (the ruler), from which he buys horses and war equipment (to be used in Allah's Cause), and give such as he sees as of benefit and advantage for Islam, in addition to those of Hadith, religious knowledge and jurisprudence, and Qur'an. There is also another share to the near relatives, and those comprise the offspring of both Hashim and Al-Muttalib, including the rich and the poor among them. It is said that it should be given to the poor among them in particular apart from the rich, such as the orphans and the wayfarers, and this is more right in my sight; and Allah Almighty knows better. This applies equally to the young and the old, the male and the female among them, for Allah Almighty has assigned it to them, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed it among them. The narration gives no reference to the fact that he gave preference to any of them over the other. Furthermore, to my knowledge, there is no difference among the religious scholars that if one make a bequest of one-third of his property to be given to the offspring of so and so, it should be distributed among them, and both their male and female are equal in that respect, if they are to be reckoned. In this way, anything that is bequeathed to be given to the offspring of so and so, should be distributed among them equally, unless otherwise it is mentioned; and Allah is the Helper of success. Another share should go to the orphans among the Muslims, and a certain share should go to the indigent and needy among the Muslims, and a share should go to the wayfarers among the Muslims. But, none of them should be given both shares, say, of the indigent needy and the wayfarer, or made to choose such of them as he likes. As for the remaining four fifths, they should be distributed by the ruler among those who take part in the fight from the adult Muslims.

4154- It is narrated on the authority of Malik Ibn Aws Ibn Al-Hadathan that he said: both Al-Abbas and Ali came as foes to Umar in order to judge between them. Al-Abbas said to him: "Judge between me and this (Ali)!" the present people said: "Give each portion separately." On that he said: "I'm not to give each his portion separately. They both know for certain that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "(The property of) us (assembly of Prophets) should not be inherited; and what we leave should be given in charity." When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" managed it, he gave his family their yearly spending, and disposed of the rest as he disposed of the property in general. Then, Abu Bakr managed it after him, and I managed it after Abu Bakr, and did with it the same as he (the Prophet) used to do. Then, both (Abbas and Ali) came to me, and asked me to hand it to them, on the condition that they should manage it in the same way as the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then Abu Bakr and then I used to manage it, and I gave it to them on that condition, and took from them Allah's pledge (to do so). Later they came to me and one of them (Abbas) said: "Give me my portion (from the property of) my nephew separately!" the other (Ali) said: "Give me my portion (from the property of) my wife (as her heritage from her father)." If they like that I should hand it to them on the condition to manage it in the very way in which the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", then Abu Bakr and then I managed it, I'm ready to do so; and if they reject, let them be sufficed (the burden of managing it)." Then he recited: " And know that out of all the booty that you may acquire (in war), a fifth share is assigned to Allah, and to the Messenger, and to near relatives, orphans, the needy, and the wayfarer" (Al-Anfal 41) and said: "This is assigned for those (mentioned here)." He further says: " Alms are for the poor and the needy, and those employed to administer the (funds); for those whose hearts have been (recently) reconciled (to the truth); for those in bondage and in debt; in the cause of Allah; and for the wayfarer." (At-Tawbah 60) he said: "This is assigned for these (referred to here)." But " What Allah has bestowed on His Messenger (and taken away) from them, for this you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry": it belongs to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in particular, including such Arab towns as Fadak and the like of it. As for the following statement " What Allah has bestowed on His Messenger (and taken away) from the people of the townships, belongs to Allah, to His Messenger and to kindred and orphans, the needy and the wayfarer...(Some part is due) to the indigent Muhajirs, those who were expelled from their homes and their property...and those who, before them, had homes (in Medina) and had adopted the Faith... And those who came after them" it implies all of the people, to the extent that there remains none from amongst the Muslims, but he has a right or a portion in that property, barring such of your slaves as your right hands possess; and if I live more, Allah Willing, the right or the portion of everyone will be given to him."

[1]

4218- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked about Aqiqah, thereupon Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Allah Almighty dislikes disobedience (of one's father when he leaves Aqiqah, and of one's son in his defiance to his parents)." He (the Prophet) seemed to have aversion towards its name, thereupon the asker said to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (once again): "We ask you when a child is born for anyone of us." On that he said: "One could offer a sacrifice for his born child if he so likes: two similar sheep for a male, and a single sheep for a female." Dawud said: I asked Zaid Ibn Aslam about the two similar sheep, thereupon he said: Two sheep of similar age, which are to be slaughtered together.

Behold! Those days are days of eating, drinking and celebrating (the Praises of) Allah Almighty." A man said: "O Messenger of Allah! We used to offer (as sacrifice) a sheep in the month of Rajab during the period of ignorance: what do you order us concerning that?" ## (43) THE BOOK OF GAMES AND SLAUGHTERED ANIMALS

[1] The Command To Mention Allah's Name On Hunting

4269- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about hunting, thereupon he said: "When you set off your dog, mention Allah's Name on it: if you catch it and he has not killed (the game), slaughter it and mention Allah's Name on it; and if you catch it and it has killed but has not eaten (of the game) you might eat of it, for he has caught it for you. But if you find that it has eaten of it, eat nothing from it, for in this case, he has caught it for itself. Furthermore, if many dogs mix with yours, and they kill the game but eat nothing of it, you should eat nothing of it, for you do not know which of them has killed it."

[2] It Is Forbidden To Eat Such Of Animals As On Which Allah's Name Has Not Been Mentioned

4270- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I asked The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the game killed by a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting. He said: "If the game is killed with its sharp edge, eat of it, but if it is killed with its shaft, (i.e. with a hit by its broad side) then the game is unlawful (to eat) for it has been beaten to death." I asked him about my hunting dog. He replied: "If you set off (with Allah's name) your dog after a game and it catches it, even though it does not eat of it, you may eat of it, for its catching a game makes it lawful (for eating). If there is another dog with your dog, and you are afraid it has taken part with yours in catching and killing, then do not eat of it, for in fact, you've mentioned Allah's Name on your dog, and not on the other."

[3] Hunting With The Help Of A Trained Dog

4271- It is narrated on the authority of Adi Ibn Hatim that he said: I said: "I set off my trained dog and it catches (the game for me)." He said: "When you set off your trained dog and you recite the name of Allah on setting it off, and it catches (the game for you), then eat (the game)." I said: "Even if this (the trained dog) kills that (game)?" He (the Prophet) said: "Even if it kills." I said to him: "I throw a heavy featherless blunt arrow, for hunting and killing (the game)." He said: "When you throw such a featherless blunt arrow, and it pierces with its sharp edge, then eat, but if it falls flatly (and beats the game to death), then do not eat that."

[35] The Sea Dead Animals

4356- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said, concerning the sea water: "It (the sea) is that, whose water is pure, and dead animals are lawful (to eat)."

4357- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (in a military expedition) and we were three hundred; and we were carrying our provisions on our necks (on account of being light in weight). Then, our provisions were about to be consumed that each man of us had no more than a single date (to sustain him for the whole day). It was said: O Abu Abdullah! What could a single date do with a man (for a whole day)? He said: No doubt, we came to know its significance when we lost it. Then, we came upon the sea, and behold! There was a big fish, ejected by the sea, from which we kept eating for eighteen days.

4358- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us (on an expedition). We were three hundred riders and our chief (leader) was Abu Ubaidah Ibn Al-Jarrah. We were to watch a caravan belonging to the Quraish (people). So we stayed on the coast (for half a month), and were so much afflicted by extreme hunger that we (were forced) to eat leaves beat by our staffs. The sea cast out for us an animal, which was called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). We ate of that for half a month and rubbed its fat on our (bodies) until our bodies became stout. Abu Ubaidah caught hold of one of its ribs and fixed that up. He then cast a glance at the tallest man of the army and the highest of the camels. Then he made him ride over it, and that man passed beneath it (the arched rib). When we were afflicted by hunger, a person slaughtered three camels, then we were afflicted by hunger, and a person slaughtered other three camels, and then we were afflicted by hunger, and a person slaughtered three camels, then Abu Ubaidah forbade us (to do so for fear that we might become short of mounts). When we asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that (after we had returned to Medina) he said to us: "Have you got anything of that?" We extracted many pitchers of fat from the cavity of its eye, in which four men sat down. Abu Ubaidah had small bags containing dates (before finding that whale), from which he gave every person amongst us a handful of dates (everyday, and when the food ran short), he then gave each one of us no more than a single date (daily). When that (stock) was exhausted, we felt its loss.

4359- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us in a military expedition under the leadership of Abu Ubaidah, and we became short of provision, and we came upon a whale cast by the sea, and wanted to eat from it. Abu Ubaidah forbade us at first, and then he said: "No doubt, we're the messengers of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and (our task is) in Allah's Cause: so, you might eat of it." We kept eating of it for many days. When we returned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him about that, he said to us: "If anything of that remains with you, send it to us."

4360- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent us on a military expedition, and we were over three hundred and ten, under the leadership of Abu Ubaidah and he (The Prophet) provided us with a bag of dates. Abu Ubaidah gave each of us (at first) a handful of dates daily, and when dates were about to be exhausted, he then reduced it to a single date (every day). We sucked it just as a baby sucks and then drank water over it, (and it sufficed us for the day until night). When we lost it, we came to feel its loss. We beat off leaves with the help of our staffs, then drenched them with water and ate them, and drank water over that, and this is why we were called the army of Leaves. We then went to the coast of the sea, and there rose before us on the coast of the sea a beast like a big mound called Al-Anbar (spermaceti whale). Abu Ubaidah said: "It is dead." He then said: "No (but it does not matter), we are the army sent by the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in the way of Allah and we are hard-pressed (on account of the scarcity of food), so you might eat that in Allah's Name." We ate of it and sliced from it compact pieces of meat which we dried (to use during our journey). Thirteen men from us sat in the cavity of its eye. Abu Ubaidah took hold of one of the ribs of its chest and made it stand and then saddled the biggest of the camels we had with us and it passed under it (the arched rib). When we came back to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he asked us: "What has delayed you to come back?" we said: "We have been pursuing the caravan of the Quraish (people)." We further made a mention to him of the sea beast, whereupon he said: "That was a provision which Allah had brought forth for you. Is there anything of it (left) with you?" we answered in the affirmative.

[36] The Frog

4361- It is narrated on the authority of Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Uthman that a physician asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to use the frog in his medicine, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade him to kill it (i.e. the forbiddance implies also its being used in medicine).

[37] The Locusts

[38] Killing Ants

4364- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "An ant bit one of the Prophets, thereupon he ordered that the village of ants be burnt. Allah Almighty revealed to him: 'Is it that an ant has bitten you, you've destroyed a whole sect, glorifying (Allah Almighty)?'"

4365- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan that he said: One of the Prophets descended under a tree and an ant stung him, thereupon he ordered that the house of ants be burnt; and it was done accordingly. On that Allah Almighty revealed to him: "Why have you not burnt the very ant (which stung you)?"

4366- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said the same, with the addition that "For they glorify Allah Almighty."

4367- The same is narrated on the authority of Al-Hasan from Abu Hurairah, without tracing it up to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him".

The man asked: "Tell me: if I could find nothing but a female milch given to me as a gift (to get benefit of its milk): should I offer it as sacrifice?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No, but you might cut short your hair, trim your nails and cut your mustache, and shave (the hair of) your pubic area: (the reward of) your sacrifice will be (written for you) in full in the Sight of Allah Almighty."

Then he said: I heard the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having forbidden that anyone should keep anything of his sacrifice more than three days.

4432- It is narrated on the authority of Ali Ibn Abu Talib that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade you to eat anything of your sacrifice more than three days.

4434- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Khabbab that Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri came back from journey, and his family presented meat of sacrifice to him, thereupon he said: "I'm not to eat it until I ask (and seek the religious verdict about it)." He went direct to his half-brother from the side of his mother, Qatadah Ibn An-Nu'man, and he was of those who attended the holy battle of Badr, and asked him about that, and he said: "After you had left, there was a change which abrogated the forbiddance of eating the meat of sacrifice more than three days."

4435- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (at first) forbade eating the meat of sacrifice more than three days (as of the day of slaughtering sacrifice). His half-brother from the side of his mother, Qatadah Ibn An-Nu'man, and he was of those who attended the holy battle of Badr, came and they served him with meat of sacrifice, thereupon he said: "Has not the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbidden that (i.e. eating the meat of sacrifice over three days beginning from the day of Sacrifice)?" on that Abu Sa'id said: "A change came (to abrogate) that. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" (at first) forbade us to eat it over three days, and then he gave us concession to eat (as long as we like) and save out of it (as much as we like)."

Whoever likes to visit the grave (he might do) for it reminds of the hereafter. Furthermore, you might drink (such of drinks as is prepared in any utensil) and safeguard yourselves from any intoxicant.”

[37] Saving Out Of The Meat Of Sacrifice

4438- It is narrated on the authority of A’ishah that she said: The poor among the people of the desert flocked (to the towns) on the occasion of Id Al-Adha during the lifetime of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, whereupon the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “Keep with you (the meat) which is sufficient for three (days, and give in charity whatever is left out of it).” After this, they (the Muslims) said: “O Messenger of Allah! The people used to get benefit from their sacrifices. They used to melt fat and make water-skins from them.” the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “What is the matter?” they said: “You forbade (them) to eat the meat of sacrificial animals beyond three (days).” He said: “I forbade you for those (poor persons) who flocked (to the towns on this occasion for meat) but now when this occasion has improved you may eat, preserve and give in charity.”

She further said: "But later I saw the family of Muhammad "Peace be upon him" having used to store even the trotter of a sheep to eat beyond fifteen days." ### [24] The Interpretation Of That

4517- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching, i.e. to touch the garment (and thus the transaction is confirmed) without checking it, and throwing, i.e. that the seller throws the garment to the buyer (and thus the bargain is confirmed) before turning or checking it.

[25] Selling By Way Of Throwing

4518- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching and throwing.

4519- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of transaction: (he forbade selling by way of) touching and throwing.

[26] The Interpretation Of That

4520- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching and throwing. As for the selling by way of touching, it is that two men enter into a bargain upon two garments at night, and each of them touches the garment of his companion with his own hand (therewith the bargain is confirmed). As for selling by way of throwing, it is that a man throws a garment to the other, who, in turn, throws another garment to him, therewith the bargain is confirmed between them.

4521- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling by way of touching, i.e. to touch the garment (and thus the transaction is confirmed) without checking it, and throwing, i.e. that the seller throws the garment to the buyer (and thus the bargain is confirmed) before turning or checking it.

4522- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of clothes, as well as he forbade two kinds of transaction. As for the two kinds of transaction, they are to sell by way of touching and throwing. As to selling by way of throwing, it is that he (the seller) says (to the buyer): 'Once I throw this garment, the bargain becomes binding'. As for selling by way of touching, it is that he only touches the garment with his hand, without spreading or turning it, and once he touches it, the bargain is affirmed.

4523- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (us to practice) two kinds of clothes, as well as The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade us to practice two kinds of transaction. As for the two kinds of transaction, they are to sell by way of touching and throwing. Those were two kinds of transaction which they used to practice during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

4524- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade two kinds of transaction. As for those kinds of transaction, they are the selling by way of touching and throwing. He pretended that selling by way of touching means that a man says to the other: 'Let me sell to you my garment for yours', even though none of them should look at the garment of the other, but he only touches it. As for the selling by way of throwing, it means that a man says to the other: 'Let me throw what I have, and you throw what you have', with the intention that each should purchase what the other has, even though none of them knows how much the other has, and the like of that.

[27] Selling With The Help Of Pebbles

(It is that a contract between both parties of transaction is based upon the fact that one of them says to the other: 'Once I throw the pebbles to you, the bargain then has been affirmed'; according to another interpretation, the contract is based upon the condition that one of them throws a pebble at a flock of sheep, and what it affects should be the sold one).

4525- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade selling with the help of pebbles, as well as he forbade selling that whose nature is unknown (even though its appearance might seem evident).

4537- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" plotted out (the price of whatever is damaged by) blights.

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered the people to give him in charity. The people gave him in charity, but this did not cover the whole of his debt. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to the purchaser): "Take only what you find with him, and you have no claim to take more than that."

Then, I intended to let it off. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" joined me and invoked good for me, and he poked it with the result that it turn to walk (so much fast) as it had never walked as such before. He said (to me): "Sell it to me for an ounce." I said: "No." he said once again: "Sell it to me." I sold it to him for an ounce, on the condition that I should ride it until I reach Medina. When I reached Medina, I brought the camel to him, and asked for its price. When I returned, he sent (somebody) behind me (so that I might come to him, and when I came back to him) he said: "Do you see that I asked you to reduce (the price) in order to deprive you of your camel? Take your camel and the Dirhams besides (for it is a gift for you)."

4647- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I attended a certain expedition with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and I was riding a camel used for carrying water which got so exhausted that it was hardly walking. I sold it to him, even though I was in need of it (since I had no other camel) but I felt shy (to refuse). When we finished our expedition and returned and approached (Medina), I excused him to let me hasten to proceed saying: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm a newly married." He asked me: "What have you married? A virgin or a previously married woman?" I said to him: "I've married a previously married woman. O Messenger of Allah! Abdullah Ibn Haram (My father) died and left young sisters of mine. So, I disliked to marry a girl like them, and I rather married a previously married woman so that she would look after and educate them." He gave me permission (to hasten to proceed and asked me to come to my family in the evening. When I reached Medina, I told my maternal uncle about selling the camel and he blamed me for it. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" arrived in Medina, I brought the camel to him in the morning. He gave me its price and returned it (the camel) to me, in addition to a share (from the war booty) with the people.

4648- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I was with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on journey , and I was riding a camel (which became tired). He asked me: "What is the reason that you are lagging behind the people?" I said: "My camel has got exhausted." He caught hold of its tail and poked it, with the result that I came to be ahead of all the people, exerting great effort to keep control over its head. When we approached Medina he (The Prophet) said to me: "What has happened to your camel? Sell it to me." I said: "No, it is a gift for you, O Messenger of Allah." He said: "No, sell it to me." I said: "No, it is a gift for you." He said: "No, sell it to me. I've purchased it for an ounce and you could ride it to Medina, and once you reach Medina, bring it to us." When I arrived in Medina, I brought it to him, thereupon he said to Bilal: "O Bilal! Weigh an ounce of gold and a Qirat more to him." I said: "This addition made by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" would lie with me forever." It was in a case of mine, which remained with me until the people of Sham came on the day of Harrah and took what they took (on which there was fighting and robbery by the people of Syria in Medina in the sixty-third year of Hegira).

[78] When A Valid Transaction Has An Invalid Condition

4651- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Aswad from A'ishah that she said: I bought Barirah, but her masters put the condition that her allegiance (the right of inheriting her property) would be for them. I told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. He said (to me): "Manumit her since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) will be for the one who pays the price." So, I manumitted her. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" called Barirah and gave her the option of either staying with her husband or leaving him. She preferred her freedom to her husband; and her husband was a free man.

4652- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she intended to buy Barirah to emancipate her, but her masters put the condition that her allegiance (the right of inheriting her property) would be for them. She told The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about it. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to her): "Buy and manumit her since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) will be for the manumitter." Some meat was brought to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and it was said: "This was given in charity to Barirah." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is an object of charity for her and (when she gives it to us, it is) a gift for us."

He asked: "Who would buy (that slave) from me?" Nu'aim Ibn Abdullah Al-Adawi bought it for eight hundred Dirhams, which he brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He (The Prophet) gave the money to him (the owner) and said: "Start with yourself and spend on it. If anything is left, it should be spent on your family. If anything is left from your family it should be spent on your kith and kin. If anything is left from your kith and kin, it should be spent like this, and like this,, i.e. (on whomever you find) In front of you, on your right and on your left."

[86] Selling A Slave Having A Written Deed Of Freedom For Money From Which He Paid Nothing

4665- It is narrated on the authority of A'ishah that she said: Barirah came to me and said: "O A'ishah! My masters gave me a written deed that I should be free in return for nine ounces (of gold) to be paid in installments along nine years. So, please, help me (pay it)." She had paid nothing of her deed. A'ishah said to her, and she had a desire for her: "Return to your masters and if they agree, I will pay them the sum at once (and free you) provided that your allegiance (the right of inheriting your property) will be for me." Barirah went to her masters and made a mention of that to them, but they refused that offer and said: "If she (A'ishah) is seeking for Allah's reward, then she can do so, but the right of inheriting the property of you will be for us." Then, A'ishah told the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about that. On that he said: "Let not (their condition) prevent you from getting her. Buy and manumit her, since the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property) is for the manumitter." She did accordingly. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then got up amongst the people, Glorified and Praised Allah, and said: "What about some people who impose conditions which are not present in Allah's Book (Laws)? So, any condition, which is not present in Allah's Book (Laws), is invalid even if there were one hundred conditions. Allah's ordinance is the truth, Allah's condition is stronger and constantly firmer. To be sure, the allegiance (the right of inheriting the property of the freed slave) is for the manumitter."

4686 - أَخْبَرَنِي عَبْدُ الرَّحْمَنِ بْنُ خَالِدٍ وَإِبْرَاهِيمُ بْنُ الْحَسَنِ وَاللَّفْظُ لَهُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا حَجَّاجُ بْنُ مُحَمَّدٍ قَالَ: قَالَ ابْنُ جُرَيْجٍ: أَخْبَرَنِي ابْنُ أَبِي حُسَيْنٍ أَنَّ أَبَا بَكْرٍ بْنَ مُحَمَّدٍ بْنَ عَمْرٍو بْنَ حَزْمٍ أَخْبَرَهُ أَنَّ عُمَرَ بْنَ عَبْدِ الْعَزِيزِ حَدَّثَهُ عَنْ أَبِي بَكْرٍ بْنَ عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ حَدِيثِ أَبِي هُرَيْرَةَ عَنِ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: «عَنِ الرَّجُلِ يُعْذِمُ إِذَا وَجَدَ عِنْدَهُ الْمَتَاعَ بِعَيْنِهِ وَعَرَفَهُ أَنَّهُ لِصَاحِبِهِ الَّذِي بَاعَهُ».

4687- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Sa'id that he said: during the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", a man was befallen (by a blight that damaged) the fruits he sold, which caused his debts to grow so much. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered the people to give him in charity. The people gave him in charity, but this did not cover the whole of his debt. On that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Take only what you find with him, and you have no claim to take more than that."

[96] When A Man Sells A Thing Which Belongs To Another Person Who Deserves It

4688- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Hudair Ibn Simak that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed the judgement concerning the man who finds his very thing in the hand of somebody, other than the suspect, that he could take it back by the same price he (the latter) had bought it if he so liked, or pursue the thief if he so liked; and so did both Abu Bakr and Umar.

4689- It is narrated on the authority of Usaid Ibn Hudair Al-Ansari, one of the sons of Banu Harithah that he told that he was the governor of Yamamah when Marwan sent to him a letter telling him that Mu'awiyah sent a letter to him in which he says that "If anything is stolen from a man, he is more entitled to take it wherever he finds it." Marwan sent a letter in this regard to him. (Usaid said) I sent my reply to Marwan in which I told that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" passed the judgement that if its purchaser was not suspect, then, its owner should have the freedom to choose to take back his stolen thing for the same price by which it was purchased if he so likes, or pursue the thief if he so likes; and so did Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman. Marwan sent my letter to Mu'awiyah, who sent his reply to Marwan in which he said: "It is not for you nor for Usaid to pass judgements different from mine, but it is I who should pass judgements by the right of ruling I have over you. So, carry out what I've ordered you." Marwan sent to me the letter of Mu'awiyah, thereupon I said: "I'm not to pass such judgement as Mu'awiyah has passed (and leave the judgement passed by the Prophet, Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman) as long as I'm the governor."

4690- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Anyone has more right to take back his (stolen or robbed) property wherever he finds it, and the purchaser shall follow its seller."

4691- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “If a woman is given in marriage by two guardians, it (the valid marriage) should be for the first of them (who has done it); and if a man buys a thing from two persons (successively), it should refer to the first of them (its real owner).”

[97] Taking Loan

4692- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Rabie'ah that he said: the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” took from me a loan of forty thousand Dirhams, and when money came to him he gave it back to me and said: "Might Allah bless you in your family and property. No doubt, the best reward of loan should be praise and fulfillment."

[98] The Severe Warning Of Falling In Debt

4693- It is narrated on the authority of Muhammad Ibn Jahsh that he said: We were sitting with the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” when he raised his head to the sky and then placed his palm on his forehead and said: "Glory to Allah! How severe is the warning which has been revealed (upon me)!" we became silent, and grew scared. When it was the morning of the coming day I asked him: "O Messenger of Allah! What is this severe warning which has been revealed?" he said: "By Him, in Whose Hand is my soul: if a man is killed (martyred) in Allah's Cause, then given life, then killed then given life, then killed and he was owing debt, he will not enter the Garden until his debt is fulfilled on behalf of him."

4694- It is narrated on the authority of Samurah that he said: We were in a funeral procession with the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” when he said thrice: “Is there anyone belonging to the sons of so and so?” (no reply was given to him in the first two times and after the third time) a man stood up and said: “It is I O Messenger of Allah.” On that the Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said: “What has prevented you from answering me in the previous two times? Indeed, I did not refer to you but for good. So and so, i.e. a man belonging to them died and he is being now detained (from being admitted to the Garden) on account of his debt.”

[99] Facilitating Its Fulfillment

4695- It is narrated on the authority of Imran Ibn Hudhaifah that he said: Maimunah used to take loans so much, to the extent that her family talked to her about that, blamed her, and became angry with her. On that she said: I

[104] The Good Treatment And Lenience In Demanding Debt

4703- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "There was a man (belonging to these who were before you) who did no good at all. But at the same time, he used to give loans to the people, and say to his envoy: "Take what is available, and leave what is not available, and plot out (the debt from the insolvent) perchance Allah might plot out our sins from us." When he died Allah Almighty asked him: "Have you ever done good?" he said: "No, but I had a servant, and I used to give loans to the people, and whenever I sent him to the people to take back what is due upon them, I would say to him: "Take what is available, and leave what is not available, and plot out (the debt from the insolvent) perchance Allah might plot out our sins from us." Allah Almighty said to him: "Then, I've plotted out your sins from you.""

4704- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "There was a man (belonging to these who were before you) who used to give loans to the people, and whenever he saw an insolvent one, he would say to his servant: "Leave him, perchance Allah Almighty would leave us (with no punishment)." ## (46) THE BOOK OF QASAMAH

(It means the collective oaths which the heirs of the suspect of committing a murder are required to take, to refute the charge from him, and we shall use the term "collective oaths" in reference to it).

[1] The Collective Oaths In The Pre-Islamic Period Of Ignorance

4715- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: "The first event of collective oaths (Qasamah) in the pre-Islamic period of ignorance was practiced by us (i.e. Banu Hashim). A man from Banu Hashim was hired by a Quraishi man from another branch-family. The (Hashimi) laborer set out with the Quraishi driving his camels. There passed by him another man from Banu Hashim. The leather rope of the latter's bag had broken so he said to the laborer: "Will you help me by giving me a rope in order to tie the handle of my bag lest the camels should run away from me?" The laborer gave him a rope and the latter tied his bag with it. When the caravan halted, all the camels' legs were tied with their fetters except one camel. The employer asked the laborer: "Why, from among all the camels has this camel not been fettered?" He replied: "There is no fetter for it." The Quraishi asked: "Where is its fetter?" he said: "There passed by me a man from Banu Hashim. The leather rope of his bag had broken so he said to me: "Will you help me by giving me a rope in order to tie the handle of my bag lest the camels should run away from me?" I gave him a rope and he tied his bag with it." The employer struck the laborer with a stick that caused his death. (Later on Just before his death) a man from Yemen passed by him. The laborer asked (him): "Will you go for the pilgrimage season this year?" He replied: "I do not think I will attend it, but perhaps I will attend it." The (Hashimi) laborer said: "Will you please convey a message from me once in your life?" The other man said: "yes." The laborer said: "When you attend the pilgrimage, call the family of Quraish, and if they respond to you, call the family of Banu Hashim, and if they respond to you, ask about Abu Talib and tell him that so-and-so has killed me for a fetter." Then the laborer expired. When the employer reached (Mecca), Abu Talib visited him and asked: "What has happened to our companion?" He said: "He became ill and I looked after him nicely (but he died) and I halted and buried him." Then Abu Talib said: "The deceased deserved this from you." After some time, the messenger whom the laborer has asked to convey the message, reached during the pilgrimage season. He called: "O the family of Quraish!" The people replied: "This is Quraish." Then he called: "O the family of Banu Hashim!" Again the people replied: "Those are Banu Hashim." He asked:

"Who is Abu Talib?" The people replied: "This is Abu Talib." He said: "So-and-so has asked me to convey a message to you that so-and-so had killed him for a fetter (of a camel)." Then Abu Talib went to the (Quraishi) killer and said to him: "Choose one of three alternatives: If you wish, give us one-hundred camels because you have murdered our companion; or if you wish, fifty of your men should take collective oaths that you have not murdered our companion, and if you do not accept this, we will kill you in implementation of the law of equality." The killer went to his people and they said: "We will take collective oaths." Then a woman from Banu Hashim who was married to one of them (i.e. the Quraishis) and had given birth to a child from him, came to Abu Talib and said: "O Abu Talib! I wish that my son from among the fifty men, should be excused from this oath, and that he should not take the oath where the oath-taking is carried on." Abu Talib excused him. Then another man from them came (to Abu Talib) and said: "O Abu Talib! You want fifty persons to take collective oaths instead of giving a hundred camels, and that means each man has to give two camels (in case he does not take an oath). So there are two camels I would like you to accept from me and excuse me from taking an oath where the oaths are taken." Abu Talib accepted them from him. Then 48 men came and took the collective oaths." Ibn Abbas further said: "By Him in Whose Hand my life is, before the end of that year, none of those 48 persons remained alive."

[2] What About The Collective Oaths Taken By The Killer's Heirs?

4716- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah and Sulaiman Ibn Yasar from one of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sanctioned Qasamah (collective oaths taken by the killer's heirs to refute the claim from him) as it was during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance.

4717- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Salamah and Sulaiman Ibn Yasar from some of the companions of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that Qasamah (collective oaths taken by the killer's heirs to refute the claim from him) was prevalent during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sanctioned it as it was and judged according to it in the case of a murdered one from the Ansar, and the Jews of Khaibar were accused of killing him.

[3] The Blood Claimants Take Oaths (To Affirm Their Claim)

4719- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Laila Abdullah Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Al-Ansari from Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that Abdullah Ibn Sahl and Muhaiyyisah went out to Khaibar as they were struck with poverty and difficult living conditions. Then Muhaiyyisah was informed that Abdullah had been killed and thrown in a pit or a spring. Muhaiyyisah went to the Jews and said: "By Allah, you have killed him." The Jews said: "By Allah, we have not killed him." Muhaiyyisah then came back to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and told him the story. He, his elder brother Huwaiyyisah and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl went (to The Prophet) and Muhaiyyisah who had been at Khaibar, proceeded to speak, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Muhaiyyisah: "The eldest! The eldest!" meaning: "Let the eldest of you speak." Huwaiyyisah spoke first and then Muhaiyyisah,. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The Jews should either pay the blood-money of your (deceased) companion or be ready for war." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a letter to the Jews in that respect, who replied: "We, by Allah, did not kill him." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Huwaiyyisah, Muhaiyyisah, and Abd Ar-Rahman: "Can you take (fifty) collective oaths by which you will have the right to take the blood-money?" They said: "No." He said : "Shall we ask the Jews to take (fifty) collective oaths (to deny the charge) before you?" They replied: "But the Jews are not Muslims." So The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave them the blood money from his own property. He sent to them one hundred she-camels, which were made to enter the house. Sahl said: A red she-camel from among them kicked me.

[4] The Different Citation-Forms Of Sahl's Narration

4721- It is narrated on the authority of Both Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah and Rafi' Ibn Khadij that they said: Abdullah Ibn Sahl Ibn Zaid and Muhaiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted and later on, Muhaiyyisah came upon Abdullah Ibn Sahl and found him murdered. He buried him and (returned to Medina and) he, Huwaiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud and Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, who was the youngest of them, came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman intended to talk before his two companions, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." He kept silent and the other two spoke, and he spoke after them. They mentioned to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, whereupon he said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder or the murderer)?" Huwayyisah spoke about the matter of the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" They said: "How could we swear if we did not witness (the murder) and we were not present?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of infidels?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property. Bushair Ibn Yasar said: Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah told me: One of those she-camels (given as the blood-wet) kicked me in a fold.

4726- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that Abdullah Ibn Sahl was found as killed (in Khaibar). His brother and his paternal uncles, Muhaiyyisah and Huwayyisah, and they were the paternal uncles of Abdullah Ibn Sahl, went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman (who was the youngest of them) intended to talk, but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." The other two said: "O Messenger of Allah! We found Abdullah Ibn Sahl being killed and thrown in one of the wells of Khaibar." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Whom do you accuse (of killing him)?" they said: "We accuse the Jews (of killing him)." He said: "Would you take fifty oaths that the Jews had killed him?" They said: "How could we take oath on something which we did not see (with our own eyes)?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then the Jews can clear themselves from your charge by taking fifty oaths (that it was not they who committed the murder)." They said: "How should we believe in the oaths of the Jews since they are pagans?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property.

4727- It is narrated on the authority of Bushair Ibn Yasar that Abdullah Ibn Sahl Al-Ansari and Muhaiyyisah Ibn Mas'ud Ibn Zaid set out together, and when they reached Khaibar, they parted for their needs, and later on, Abdullah Ibn Sahl Al-Ansari was murdered. Muhaiyyisah came back (to Medina) and he, Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Sahl, the brother of the murdered, and Huwayyisah Ibn Mas'ud came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abd Ar-Rahman (who was the youngest of them) intended to talk on account of the fact that the murdered was his brother, , but The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said (to him): "Let the eldest of you speak." Both Muhaiyyisah and Huwaiyyisah spoke about the matter of the murder of Abdullah Ibn Sahl. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Would you take fifty oaths (as to who has committed the murder), and then you would be entitled to take (the right of) your companion from the murderer?" Bushair pretended that (when they refused to swear on what they saw not, and further did not accept the oaths of the Jews of refuting the charge) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" himself paid the blood money (of the murdered) from his own property.

4728- It is narrated on the authority of Bushair Ibn Yasar Al-Ansari from one from amongst the Ansar called Sahl Ibn Abu Hathmah that some of them set out to Khaibar, wherein they parted. Later on, they found one of them being murdered thereupon they said to those in whose dwellings they found their murdered companion: "You have killed our companion." They said: "We neither killed him, nor did we know his murderer." They went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! We went to Khaibar and found one of us having been killed." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" then asked them to bring about evidence against such as killed him, but they told him that they had no evidence. He said: "Then, let them take an oath for you (to clear themselves from your charge)." They said: "We do not accept the oaths of the Jews." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" disliked that his blood should be wasted, so, he paid one hundred camels from those given in charity as his blood-wit.

4729- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the younger son of Muhaiyyisah was killed at the gates of Khaibar. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Bring about two witnesses against his killer, and I would hand him over to you." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I bring about two witnesses since he was killed at their gates?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, take fifty oaths (as to who has killed him)." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! How should I take oath on that which I know not?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Then, let's ask them to have fifty take oaths (to refute the claim from themselves)." He said: "O Messenger of Allah! ### [5] Exacting Retribution

4730- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not permissible to make lawful the blood of a Muslim except in one of three cases: (taking) the life (in retribution) for life, The married person who committed adultery, and the one who abandoned his religion (of Islam), and deviated from the group (of Muslims)."

4731- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: A man was killed during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and the case was filed to him, thereupon he handed over the killer to the blood claimants. The killer said: "O Messenger of Allah! By Allah, I've not intended to kill him." On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the heir of the murdered one: "However, if he is true (in his statement) and you kill him, surely, you will be admitted to the fire (of Hell)." He released him. He (the killer) was tied with a leather string, which he was dragging on the ground, when he came out (after having been released), thereupon he came to be called the One of Leather String.

4732- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il Al-Hadrami from his father that he said: A murderer was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He called the heir of the murdered person and asked him: "Are you going to forgive him (the killer)?" he answered in the negative. He asked him: "Then, are you going to kill him (in retaliation)?" he answered in the affirmative, thereupon he said to him: "Then, go with him (to do so)." When he turned away he asked him: "Are you going to forgive him (the killer)?" he answered in the negative. He asked: "Then, are you going to accept the blood-money?" he answered in the negative. When he went (to kill him) he said to him: "Behold! If you forgive him, he will draw his sin and the sin of his companion (whom he killed) upon himself." On that he (the blood claimant) forgave him. The narrator said: I saw him (the killer) dragging the leather string on the ground.

On that he (the blood claimant) forgave him. The narrator said: I saw him (the killer) dragging the leather string on the ground.

4734- A Hadith like this is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr from his father from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Yahya said: This narration is better.

4735- It is narrated on the authority of Wa'il Ibn Hujr that he said: I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a killer tied with a leather string in his neck was brought to him. He (the blood claimant) said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Forgive him." He rejected and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." He said: "Forgive him." He rejected. He then stood up and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man and my brother were digging a well, when he lifted a mattock therewith he struck his head and killed him." He said: "Forgive him." He rejected. He then said: "Go (to do so) but (to be sure) if you kill him, you will be like him (in sin particularly in case he was true to his statement that he killed him by mistake and not intentionally)." When he went far we called him: "Have you not heard the statement of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"?" he returned and asked: "Will I be like him (in sin) if I kill him?" he answered in the affirmative thereupon he said: "Then, I forgive him." He (the killer) came out dragging his leather string (on the ground) until he disappeared from our sights.

4736- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il from his father that he was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man brought another whom he was leading with a leather string and said: "O Messenger of Allah! This man killed my brother." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Have you really killed him?" he (the blood claimant) said: "O Messenger of Allah! If he does not confess, I'm ready to bring about evidence against him." He (the killer) said: "Yes, I've killed him." He (the Prophet) asked: "How have you killed him?" he said: "He and I were cutting off fire wood from a tree when he insulted me and provoked my anger, thereupon I struck the side of his head with the mattock (and he died immediately)." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked him: "Have you got property to pay the blood-money for yourself?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! I have got no property other than my mattock and dress." the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do you think your people are ready to ransom you?" he said: "O Messenger of Allah! I'm too insignificant in the sight of my people to do so for me." He then threw the leather string to the man (the blood claimant) and said: "Take the man (and kill him)." When he turned away the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin since he seemed to have killed by mistake)." The people caught him and said: "Woe to you! the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" says that 'If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin)'." He returned to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "O Messenger of Allah! I was informed that you said 'If he kills him, he will be like him (in sin)'. Have I taken him (to kill him) but by your command?" he asked: "Do you not like that he should draw upon himself his sin and the sin of his companion (whom he has killed)?" he answered in the affirmative. He said: "Then, (if you forgive him) this will be so." He said: "if it is so, then, I've forgiven him."

4737- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il from his father that he said: While I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" a man brought another whom he was leading with a leather string...and the rest is the same.

4738- It is narrated on the authority of Alqamah Ibn Wa'il that his father told them that a murderer was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", whom he handed over to the blood claimant in order to kill him. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to his sitters: "Both the killer and the killed will be

I saw him dragging his leather string on the ground when he let him go. When I made a mention of that to Habib he said: Sa'id Ibn Ashwa' related to me the same, and told me that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to forgive him.

4739- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: An heir of a killed man brought the killer to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Forgive him." But he rejected. He further asked him to accept the blood-money, but he refused. On that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Go and kill him: indeed, (if you do so) you will be like him (in the sin of killing for the killer pretended he had no real intention to kill the deceased)." He (the heir of the deceased) was caught up with and it was said to him: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "indeed, (if you do so) you will be like him (in the sin of killing)." Then, he released him. While he was going to his family, he came upon me dragging a leather string (with which the deceased's heir was tying him).

4740- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that a man came to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and said: "This man has killed my brother." He said to him: "Go and kill him as he has killed your brother." He (the murderer) said: "Fear Allah, and forgive me, for this will be more rewardable and much better for you and your brother on the Day of Judgement." He then released him. When the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was informed of that he asked him, and he told him of what he had said to him. the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" reproached him (the killer) saying: "Behold! It (killing you in the world) would have been much better than what he would come to do with you on the Day of Judgement, saying: 'O Lord! Ask this man for which thing he had killed me'."

[7] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If you Judge, Judge In Equity Between Them. For Allah Loves Those Who Judge In Equity"

4741- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: (There was dispute between the Jews of) Quraizhah and An-Nadir during the pre-Islamic period of ignorance, and the tribe of An-Nadir had power over those of Quraizhah. The result was that if one of Quraizhah killed another from An-Nadir, he should be killed by him in retaliation, and if one from the tribe of

An-Nadir killed one from those of Quraizhah, he would not be killed by him in retaliation, but, he would be ransomed by one hundred Wasaqs (each equal to sixty Sa's) of dates. It happened that one from amongst the Nadir tribe killed one from amongst the Quraizhah, after the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had been sent as a Prophet. They (the heirs) said: "Bring him (the killer) to us, so that we would kill him (for our murdered one)." They replied: "Let's appeal to the Prophet to judge between us." They went to him (to judge between them), thereupon Allah Almighty revealed: "If you judge, judge in equity between them. For Allah loves those who judge in equity." (Al-Ma'idah 42) Then He Almighty further said: "Do they then seek after a judgment of (the Days of) Ignorance?" (Al-Ma'idah 50)

[8] The Different Citation-Forms Of Ikrimah's Narration

4742- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The following was revealed concerning the blood-money between the Jews of Nadir and Quraizhah: "If they do come to you, either judge between them, or decline to interfere... If you judge, judge in equity between them. For Allah loves those who judge in equity." (Al-Ma'idah 42) it was the habit that whenever anyone of the Nadir people killed anyone of the Quraizhah, they should pay no more than half the blood-money; and whenever anyone of the Quraizhah people killed anyone of the Nadir, they should pay the blood-money in full. They appealed to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to judge between them, thereupon Allah Almighty revealed the previous Holy statement. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forced them to follow the truth in that matter, when he made the blood-money equal between them.

[9] The Law Of Equality Concerning Free Men And Slaves

4743- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Ubad that he said: I and Al-Ashtar went to Ali and asked him: "Has the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" confided to you anything he has not confided to anyone else?" he said: "No, barring what this document of mine contains." He brought out a document from the sheath of his sword, and it had the following: "All the Muslims are equal in their blood; and they should (intimately gather and help one another like the) one hand against their enemies; and even the one belonging to the lowest social status among them has the claim to give the right of protection (to whomever he likes, and it should be respected by all of them). 4809- It is narrated on the authority of Al-Qasim Ibn Rabie'ah that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Behold! (The blood-money of) the murdered who is semi-intentionally killed by mistake i.e. with a whip or a stick is one hundred camels, forty of which should be seven-to-nine-year old pregnant."

4810- It is narrated on the authority of Amr Ibn Shu'aib from his father from his grandfather that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He, who is killed by mistake, his blood-money should be one hundred camels: thirty one-year-old she-camels, thirty two-year-old she-camels, thirty three-year-old she-camels, and ten two-year-old he-camels." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" estimated it as four hundred Dinars (of gold) or what is equal to that from (Dirhams of) silver for the town residents; and this amount differed in accordance with the difference of the prices of camels from time to time: when the price was high, the amount would increase, and when it was low, it would decrease. In this way, it (the blood-money) was between four hundred and eight hundred Dinars (of gold) or what is equal from (Dirhams of) silver, i.e. eight thousand Dirhams during the lifetime of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Furthermore, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that if one's blood-wet should be paid from cows, two hundred cows would be due upon the owners of cows; and if one's blood-wet should be paid from sheep, two thousand sheep would be due upon the owners of sheep. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, the blood-wet is a part of the heritage, which should go to the heirs of him (the deceased), according to the closeness of kinship, and what remains should go to such of his kinship as from the side of his father (who have no obligatory shares in the heritage, but they always inherit what remains of the shares)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that the woman's blood-wet is due upon her relatives from the side of her father, who have no obligatory shares of inheritance but what remains out of the shares of her heirs; and if a woman is killed, her blood-money should go to her heirs, upon whom it is due to kill her murderer (if they so like)."

Furthermore, the forbiddance of throwing with pebbles is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal.

4825- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from Abdullah Ibn Mughaffal that he saw a man throwing pebbles, thereupon he said to him: "Do not throw pebbles for the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" forbade (or disliked) throwing pebbles.

4826- It is narrated on the authority of Tawus that Umar consulted the people concerning the fetus's blood-money, thereupon Hamal Ibn Malik said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that the fetus's blood-money should be a young slave (or slave-girl). Tawus said: A mare also stands for that.

4827- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that the blood-money of a fetus belonging to a woman from Banu Lihyān, which fell as dead (because of miscarriage) should be a young slave or slave-girl. Later on, the woman against whom he passed this judgement died, thereupon the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" judged that her heritage should go to her children and husband, and the blood-wet due upon her should be paid by the close relatives from the side of her father.

4828- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Two women from Hudhail fought with each other, one of whom threw the other with a stone that killed her and what was in her womb. They (i.e. the relatives of the killer and the relatives of the victim) filed their case to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who judged that the blood-money for the fetus was a slave or a slave girl, and the blood-money for the killed woman was to be paid by the killer's relatives from the side of her father. He made her son and those with him her heirs. Hamal Ibn An-Nabighah Al-Hudhali said: "O Messenger of Allah! Why should I pay blood money for one who neither drank, nor ate, nor spoke, nor cried (after miscarriage by which it would be known that he died after he was alive). It is like a nonentity (which deserves no blood-money)." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He seems to be one of the brothers of soothsayers" and this was in view of the rhymed speech he composed."

4829- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: During the lifetime of Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him",

4864- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Hazm from his father from his grandfather that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote a document to the people of Yemen, including the obligatory and supererogatory deeds and shares, blood-wets, and then he sent it with Amr Ibn Hazm, and it was recited before the people of Yemen as follows: "From Muhammad, the Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"...and the rest is the same with the following addition: "Half the blood-money should be due for (causing damage to) one eye; half the blood-money should be due for (cutting off) a hand; half the blood-money should be due for (cutting off) a foot." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says: This is more right.

4865- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shihab that he said: I read the document written by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Amr Ibn Hazm when he sent him as the governor of Najran, and the document was with Abu Bakr Ibn Hazm. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" wrote the following: "This is a clear evidence from Allah and His Messenger: 'O you who believe! Fulfill (all) obligations... for Allah is swift in taking account.'" (Al-Ma'idah 1:4) then he wrote: "This is a document of (the blood-money of) wounds: (The blood-money of killing) a soul is one hundred camels...and the rest is the same.

4866- It is narrated on the authority of Az-Zuhri that he said: Abu Bakr Ibn Hazm brought to me a document written in a piece of skin from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" with the following: "This is a clear evidence from Allah and His Messenger: 'O you who believe! Fulfill (all) obligations... for Allah is swift in taking account.'" (An-Nisa 1:4) then he said: "(The blood-money for killing) a soul is one hundred camels; (for impairing) the eye is fifty camels; (for cutting off) a hand is fifty camels; (for cutting off) a foot is fifty camels; (for causing) a deep head-wound, (that penetrates the skin to the bone of the skull) one-third the blood-money is due; (for causing) a sharp acute pierce ( which penetrates the skin inside any part of the body), one-third the blood-money is due; (for causing) a bone-displacing wound, fifteen camels are due; and (for cutting off) each finger or toe ten camels are due; and (for breaking) a tooth five camels are due; and (for) a bone-uncovering wound five camels are due."

4867- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Bakr Ibn Muhammad Ibn Amr Ibn Hazm that he said: The book written by The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to Amr Ibn Hazm concerning the blood-wets goes as follows: "(the blood-money for killing) a soul (of a human being) that is slain (by mistake) is one hundred camels; if the nose is

4868- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that a desert Arab came to the door of (the house of) The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and peeped through the opening of the door with his eyes. When The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" saw him, he turned a piece of iron or a stick towards him in order to gouge out his eyes. When he (the Bedouin) saw him, he returned his sight. On that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to him: "Had you kept peeping, I would have gouged out your eyes."

4869- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that he said: A man peeped through a round hole into the dwelling place of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who had an iron comb with which he was scratching his head. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: " Had I known that you were looking (through the hole), I would have pierced your eye with it (the comb)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" further said: "Verily! The order of taking permission to enter (somebody's dwelling) has been enjoined because of that sight."

[48] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If A Man Kills A Believer Intentionally, His Recompense Is Hell, To Abide Therein "

4873- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza told me to ask Ibn Abbas about the following statement: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)", (An-Nisa 93) and when I asked him he said: "Nothing abrogated it." He also told me to ask him about the following statement: " Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication, and any that does this (not only) meets punishment" (Al-Furqan 68) and when I asked him he said: "It was revealed in connection with the pagans."

4874- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: The people of Kufah differed about the (significance of) the following statement: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)", (An-Nisa 93) and I set out to Ibn Abbas and asked him and he said: "It was the latest to be revealed, and nothing abrogated it."

4875- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Abbas: "Is there repentance (to be accepted from) such as kills a faithful believer intentionally?" he answered in the negative. I recited to him the following Holy Verse from the Surah of Al-Furqan: " Those who invoke not, with Allah, any other god, nor slay such life as Allah has made sacred, except for just cause, nor commit fornication, and any that does this (not only) meets punishment" (68) he said: "This is a Meccan Holy Verse which was abrogated by a Medinian Verse: " If a man kills a Believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell, to abide therein (forever)." (Women 93)

4876- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he was asked about such as kills a faithful believer intentionally, and then he repents, makes amends, and follows the right guidance. He said: "How should his

He committed theft during the time of (the caliphate of) Abu Bakr until all his limbs were cut off. On that Abu Bakr said: "Of a surety, the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had best knowledge of that when he ordered that he should be killed." He handed him over to some young men belonging to the Quraish people in order to kill him, including Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair, who used to like chieftaincy. #### (15) - بَابُ قُطْعِ الْيَدَيْنِ وَالرَّجْلَيْنِ مِنَ السَّارِقِ

4988 - أَخْبَرَنَا مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ بْنِ عُبَيْدِ بْنِ عَقِيلٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا جَدِّي قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا مُضْعَبُ بْنُ ثَابِتٍ عَنْ مُحَمَّدِ بْنِ الْمُثَنَّدِ عَنْ جَابِرِ بْنِ عَبْدِ اللَّهِ قَالَ: جِيءَ بِسَّارِقٍ إِلَى رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ قَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ» فَقُطِعَ ثُمَّ جِيءَ بِهِ الثَّانِيَةَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» فَقَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ. قَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ» فَقُطِعَ فَاتِي بِهِ الثَّالِثَةَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْتُلُوهُ» قَالُوا: يَا رَسُولَ اللَّهِ إِنَّمَا سَرَقَ فَقَالَ: «أَقْطَعُوهُ»

He only has committed theft." He then ordered that his hand should be cut off. Then, he (committed theft for the fifth time and) was brought to the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", who ordered that he should be killed. Jabir said: We then took him to the resting place of camels, and made him lie on his back. Then, he raised his body with the help of his hands and legs, and the camels retreated. They attacked him for the second time, and he did the same. They attacked him for the third time, and we then threw him with the stones and killed him, and threw him in a well, and placed stones over his body. (The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" did not order that he should be killed only because of his committing theft, but because he caused mischief in the land, and behaved like the renegades from Islam).

4996- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Hubshi Al-Khath'ami that the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was asked: "Which deed is the best (in reward and value)?" he said: "It is to have faith (in Allah and His Messenger) in which there is no doubt, to be engaged in Jihad (in Allah's Cause) in which there is no misappropriation, and to perform Hajj that is accepted (by Allah Almighty)."

[2] The Taste Of Faith

4997- It is narrated on the authority of Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness and taste of faith: The one to whom Allah Almighty and His Apostle become dearer than anything else, who loves or hates (anyone) and he loves or hates him only in (the religion of) Allah Almighty, to whom it is better to fall into a great kindled fire than to ascribe partners to Allah (in service)."

4998- It is narrated on the authority of Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness of faith: The one who loves anyone and he loves him only in (the religion of) Allah Almighty, to whom Allah Almighty and His Apostle become dearer than anything else, to whom it is better to be thrown into fire than to revert to infidelity after Allah Almighty had rescued him from it."

[4] The Sweetness Of Islam

4999- It is narrated on the authority of Anas from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that he said: "Whoever possesses the following three qualities will have the sweetness of Islam: The one to whom Allah Almighty and His Apostle become dearer than anything else, who loves (anyone) and he loves him only in (the religion of) Allah Almighty, and who hates to revert to infidelity in the same way as he hates to be thrown into the fire."

[5] The Essence Of Islam

5000- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab told me: One day we were with The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", when there appeared before us a man, wearing very white clothes, having very deep black hair, on whom, there were no traces of journey. Furthermore, none amongst us recognized him. He sat with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He knelt in front of him, with his palms on his (the stranger's) thighs and said: "O Muhammad, tell me: what is Islam?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Islam is to testify that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is The Messenger of Allah, to establish the (obligatory) prayer, practice the regular charity, observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan, and perform pilgrimage to the House in case you are able to do." He said: "You have told the truth." However, we were astonished that he raised the question and, at the same time, confirmed that it (the answer) was true. He said: "Tell me: what is faith?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, His Messengers, The Day of Judgment, and the fate, be it good or evil." He said: "You are true." Then, He said: "Tell me what faithfulness is?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him, putting in mind that even though you don't see Him, He sees you." He said: "Tell me about The Doomed hour." He (The Prophet) commented: "The one who was asked knows no more than the one who asked." He said: "Tell me some of its portents." He (The Prophet) answered: "(Some of its portents are): That the slave-girl will give birth to her mistress and master, that you will find barefooted, destitute goat herds (so much wealthy that they will be) competing one another in constructing the great huge buildings." Three days later, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "O Umar, do you know who this asker was?" I replied: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He commented: "He was (the angel) Gabriel "Peace be upon him", who came in order to teach you the matters of your religion."

[6] The Essence Of Faith And Islam

5001- It is narrated on the authority of both Abu Hurairah and Abu Dharr that they said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" used to have his seat among his companions, and whenever a stranger came, he would not recognize him (from among them) until he would ask about him. We asked the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to fix a sitting place for him, so that any stranger would recognize him once he came. We then build a high-grade of mud for him and he sat on it. One day, while we were sitting, and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was sitting, there came a man, having the prettiest face among the people, and the most pleasant smell among the people, and his garment was (as clean) as if no dirt affected it. He paid salutation while being at the end of the gathering saying: "Peace be upon you O Muhammad." He returned the greeting to him. He asked: "Might I come closer O Muhammad?" he said: "Yes, you might come closer." He kept asking for coming closer and he (the Prophet) kept replying in the affirmative so many times until he became so much close that he placed his hands on the knees of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". He said: "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is Islam?" He (The Prophet) answered: "Islam is to worship Allah and not associate anything with Him, to establish the obligatory prayers, to practice the regular charity, to perform Hajj to the House, and to observe the fasts of (the month of) Ramadan." He said: "If I do so, should I become a Muslim?" he answered in the affirmative. He said: "You have told the truth." When we heard the statement of the man 'You've told the truth' we regarded it (his conduct) as something strange. He asked (once again): "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is faith?" He (The Prophet) replied: "It is to believe in Allah, His angels, His Books, the Messengers, and the Fate in full." He said: "If I do so, should I become a faithful believer?" The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" answered in the affirmative. He said: "You have told the truth." He asked: "O Muhammad! Tell me: What is faithfulness?" He (The Prophet) answered: "It is to worship Allah as if you see Him. Indeed, if you are unable to feel that you see Him, you should put in mind that He sees you." The man said: "You are true." He asked: "O Muhammad! Tell me: When would the doomed hour be?" he turned down, and gave no answer. He repeated the question, but he (the Prophet) gave no answer. He repeated the question (for the third time) but he (the Prophet) gave no answer. Then, he (The Prophet) raised his head and said: "The one who was asked has no better knowledge of it than the inquirer. But, there will be many portents for it: When you see the shepherds of the beasts competing in (constructing the huge) buildings, (this is one of its portents). When you see the naked, barefooted, ignorant, foolish persons turning to be the rulers of the earth, (this is one of its portents). When you see the slave-girl giving birth to her owner, (this is one of its portents). (The Hour) is one of the five unseen events which no one knows but Allah." Then he (The Messenger of Allah) recited (Allah's saying): "Verily the knowledge of the Hour is with Allah (alone). It is He Who knows rain, and He Who knows what is in the wombs.

[7] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: "The Desert Arabs Say: 'We Believe.' Say: 'You Have No Faith, But You (Only) Say, 'We Have Submitted Our Wills To Allah (In Islam)'"

5002- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) from his father that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property amongst a group of people, and left someone of them, thereupon he said: "O Allah's Apostle! You've given so and so, and so and so, but you have given nothing to that person, even though he is a faithful believer." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" commented: "Or merely a Muslim." He repeated his suggestion thrice, and he (The Prophet) repeated his reply "Or nearly a Muslim" thrice. Then, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "O Sa'd! I give men (to habituate their hearts for fear of reverting to disbelief) even though I leave another who is dearer to me, for fear that he might be thrown (prone) on his face into the Fire (of Hell by Allah Almighty)."

5003- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Sa'd (Ibn Abu Waqqas) from his father that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" distributed some property amongst a group of people, and left someone of them, thereupon I said: "O Allah's Apostle! You've given so and so, and so and so, but you have given nothing to that person, even though he is a faithful believer." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Do not say 'he is really a faithful believer', but you might say 'Or He is merely a Muslim'." Ibn Shihab said: (Allah says) "The desert Arabs say: "We believe." Say: "You have no Faith, but you (only) say, 'We have submitted our wills to Allah (in Islam)'." (Al-Hujurat <sup>14</sup>)

5004- It is narrated on the authority of Bishr Ibn Suhaim that Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" ordered him to make a public announcement among the people during the days of Tashriq that none but a faithful believer will enter the Garden; and those days are days of eating and drinking.

[12] The Interpretation Of Allah's Statement: " If Any Do Fail To Judge By (The Light Of) What Allah Has Revealed, They Are (No Better Than) Unbelievers"

5410- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: After (the death of) Jesus "Peace be upon him" there came kings who changed both Torah and Gospel. But at the same time, there were faithful believers, who recited the Torah (as it should be recited with no change). It was said to their king: "We find nothing more offensive to us than that with which those (believers) insult us when they recite: " If any do fail to judge by (the light of) what Allah has revealed, they are (no better than) Unbelievers" in addition to those statements, and such of faults as they find with us as shown in their recital: so, invite them, and ask them to recite in the same way as we recite, and believe in the same way as we believe." He (the king) invited them, and offered to them either to kill them or to leave their way of reciting the Torah and Gospel, and accept the changes they made in it. They said to them: "What is that which you like us to do? Let us!" a sect of them said: "Build a cylinder-shaped edifice and let's live in it, and provide us with an instrument therewith to get our food and drink, and thus we would never come back to you (and you would consequently hear nothing harmful to you from us)." Another sect said: "Let's wander in the land and drink in the same way as a wild animal drinks, and if you have power over us within the limits of your land, then kill us (if you so like)." A third sect of them said: "Build places of worship for us in the desert, and let's dig wells and cultivate grains, so that we would never come back to you nor pass by you once again"; and there is none of the tribes but that he has a friend therein. They did accordingly. On that occasion Allah Almighty revealed: " but the Monasticism which they invented for themselves, We did not prescribe for them: (We commanded) only the seeking for the Good Pleasure of Allah; but that they did not foster as they should have done." (Al-Hadid 27) the others said: "Let's worship (Allah) in the same way as so and so does, and wander in the land in the same way as so and so does, and take houses just as so and so does", even though they are still on their paganism, having no knowledge of the faith of those whom they followed. When Allah Almighty sent The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" as the Prophet, and only a few of those remained, a man came down from his monastery, another from his wandering, and a third from his church, and they believed in him, and had trust (in what he said). In connection with this Allah Almighty says: "O you that believe! Fear Allah, and believe in His Messenger, and He will bestow on you a double portion of His Mercy (one

[13] Passing Judgement Depending Upon What Seems To Be Evident

5411- It is narrated on the authority of Umm Salamah that she said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You appeal to me to judge between you, and I'm but a human being (who does not know the unseen), and perhaps, some of you might be more expressive in his argument than the others. So, if I pass a judgement therewith I give anyone the right of his brother, let not him take it, for in fact I give him a piece of fire."

[14] Passing Judgement Depending Upon The Judge's Knowledge

5412- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "There were two women, each of whom had a child with her. A wolf came and took away the child of one of them, whereupon the other said: "It has taken your child." The first said: "No, it has taken your child." So they both carried the case before David who judged that the living child be given to the elder lady. So both of them went to Solomon Ibn David and informed him (of the case). He said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." The younger lady said: "May Allah be merciful to you! Don't do that, for it is her (The other lady's) child." So he gave the child to the younger lady."

Then, both of them came upon Solomon Ibn David who asked them about their story, and when they informed him (of the case), he said: "Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them." The younger lady said: "Are you really going to cut the child into two pieces?" he answered in the affirmative. She said: "Don't do that,

[17] The Reply To A Judge When He Passes A Wrong Judgement

5415- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" sent Khalid Ibn Al-Walid to Banu Jadhimah. Khalid invited them to Islam but they could not express themselves by saying: "We have embraced Islam," but they started saying: "we have come out of one religion to another." (Misunderstood their statement) Khalid went on killing (some of) them and taking (some of) them as captives and gave every one of us his Captive. One day, Khalid ordered that each man (of Muslim soldiers) should kill his captive. I said: "By Allah, I will not kill my captive, and none of my companions will kill his captive." When we reached The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", we mentioned to him the whole story. On that, The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" raised both his hands and said twice: "O Allah! I am free from what Khalid has done."

[19] The Concession For An Honest Judge To Pass Judgement While Being In The State Of Anger

5417- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair from Az-Zubair Ibn Al-Awwam that Az-Zubair quarreled with an Ansari man who attended the holy battle of Badr with The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the Harrah Canals which were used for irrigating the date-palms. The Ansari man said to Az-Zubair: "Let the water pass." but Az-Zubair refused to do so. So, the case was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to Az-Zubair: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water pass to your neighbour." On that the Ansari got angry and said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Is it for he (Zubair) is your aunt's son?" On that the colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed (because of anger) and he said: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits round the trees." So, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" gave Zubair his full right. The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" had previously given an order that was in favor of both of them. But after the Ansari had provoked the anger of The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", he enabled Az-Zubair to take his right in full. Zubair said: "By Allah, I think that the following verse was revealed on this occasion": "But no, by your Lord, they can have no (real) Faith, until they make you judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against your decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction." (An-Nisa 65)

[20] A Judge Passes Judgement In His House

5418- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Ka'b (Ibn Malik) from Ka'b that he asked Ibn Abu Hadrud to pay the debts which he owed to him and their voices grew louder. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" heard that while he was in his house. So he came to them raising the curtain of his room and said: "O Ka'b!" he replied: "I'm responding to your call O Allah's Apostle!" He said: "O Ka'b! reduce your debt" and he beckoned to a half. He said: "O Allah's Apostle! I have done so." Then The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to the other (Ibn Abu Hadrud): "Get up and pay the debt to him."

[22] Keeping Women Away From The Assembly Of Judgement

5420- It is narrated on the authority of Both Abu Hurairah and Zaid Ibn Khalid Al-Juhani that they said: Two men came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" and one of them said: "Judge between us according to Allah's Laws." His opponent, who was more learnt than him, got up and said: "Well, judge between us according to Allah's Laws and excuse me to speak." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "You would speak." He said: "My son was a labourer working for this man, with whose wife he committed illegal sexual intercourse. The people told me that my son should be stoned to death; so, in lieu of that, I paid a ransom of one hundred sheep and a slave-girl to save my son. Then I asked the learned scholars who said: "Your son has to be whipped one hundred lashes and exiled for one year, and that stoning to death is due upon the wife of this man." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hand my life is! I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to go back to you." He gave his son one hundred lashes and sentenced him to one-year exile. He ordered Unais to go to the wife of this (man and said to him) "And if she confessed (of committing adultery) stone her to death." When she confessed (of committing adultery), he stoned her to death.

5421- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah, Zaid Ibn Khalid and Shibl that they said: We were with Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" when a man came to him and said: "O Allah's apostle! Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Speak." He said: "My son was working as a labourer for this (man) and he committed adultery with his wife. Then I asked the religious scholars about it, and they informed me that my son must be whipped one hundred lashes, and be exiled for one year." Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "By Him, in Whose Hands my soul is, I will judge between you according to Allah's Laws. The slave-girl and the sheep are to be returned to you, your son is to receive one hundred lashes and be exiled for one year. You, Unais, go in the morning to the wife of this (man) and if she confesses her guilt, stone her to death." He went to that woman next morning and she confessed her guilt and he stoned her to death.

[23] The Judge Sends Somebody To Execute The Legal Punishment On Such As Is Reported To Commit Adultery

5422- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Umamah Ibn Sahl Ibn Hunaif that he said: A woman was brought to Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him", and she had committed adultery. He asked her: "With whom have you committed adultery?" she said: "With the disabled one who is in the dwelling place of Sa'd." he sent somebody to bring him, and he was brought as carried and placed in front of him. When he confessed (his guilt) Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked for a date-palm leaf stalk therewith he struck him (one hundred times) though lightly with clemency in view of his old age and sickness.

[24] The Ruler Proceeds Towards Such Of His Subjects As Are In Dispute To Make Peace Between Them

5423- It is narrated on the authority of Sahl Ibn Sa'd As-Sa'idi that he said: There was a quarrel between two Ansari groups, which developed into throwing each other with stones. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" went to make peace between them. At the same time, the prayer was due, and Bilal pronounced Adhan for prayer and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was expected to come back, but he seemed to have delayed. He (Bilal) established the prayer and Abu Bakr moved forward to lead the prayer. Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came back while Abu Bakr was leading the prayer.

When the people saw him (the Prophet) they clapped their hands. It was the habit of Abu Bakr not to turn sideways during his prayer, but when he heard them clapping their hands, he turned and behold! Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was there. When he intended to move backward (so that the Prophet would come forward to lead the prayer) he beckoned to him to remain in his place, but he raised his hands (praising Allah Almighty for the honour given to him by the Prophet) and retreated, and Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" came forward and led the prayer. When Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" finished the prayer he asked him: "What has prevented you to remain in your place (when I beckoned to you to do)?" he said: "It was not befitting for Ibn Abu Quhafah that Allah Almighty causes him to be ahead of His Messenger." Then he faced the people and asked them: "What is the matter with you that if anything doubtful befalls you in your prayer you clap your hands? This act is fitting only for women. But if anything doubtful befalls anyone of you in his prayer, let him say: 'Glory be to Allah'."

Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" appeared to them, and said: "O Ka'b!" he beckoned with his hand, as if he asked him to reduce the debt to the half. He (accepted and) took back half the debt and let off the remaining half.

He called the heir of the murdered person and asked him: "Are you going to forgive him (the killer)?" he answered in the negative. He asked: "Then, are you going to accept the blood-money?" he answered in the negative. ### [27] The Judge Hints (To One's Opponent) To Be Lenient

5426- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Az-Zubair that an Ansari man appealed to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to judge between him and Az-Zubair about the Harrah Canals which were used for irrigating the date-palms. The Ansari man said to Az-Zubair: "Let the water pass." but Az-Zubair refused to do so. So, the case was brought before The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Az-Zubair: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water pass to your neighbour." On that the Ansari got angry and said to The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him": "O Messenger of Allah! Is it for he (Zubair) is your aunt's son?" On that the colour of the face of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" changed (because of anger) and he said: "O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it reaches the walls between the pits round the trees." Az-Zubair said: "I think that the following verse was revealed on this occasion": " But no, by your Lord, they can have no (real) Faith, until they make you judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against your decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction." (An-Nisa 65)

The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to Abbas: "O Abbas! are you not astonished at the love of Mughith for Barirah and the hatred of Barirah for Mughith?" the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to her: "O Barirah! He recited the Surah in full. Then he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'." He recited the Surah in full. Then he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." He recited the Surah in full, and then said: "Of a surety, none has ever sought refuge (from evil) with the like of them."

5441- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir Al-Juhani that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said to me: "Say!" I asked: "What should I say?" he said: "Say: 'He is Allah, the One and Only'; say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'; say: 'I seek with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" recited those (three Surahs) in full and said: "People have never sought refuge (from evil) with the like of them (before)."

5442- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abis Al-Juhani that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to him: "O Ibn Abis! Should I not guide you to the best thing therewith such as seek refuge (from evil) do?" he said: "Yes O Messenger of Allah." He said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak' and say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'. i.e. those two Surahs."

5443- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: A white mule was presented to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him”, which he rode and while Uqbah was leading it with him The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to Uqbah: "Recite!" he asked: "What should I recite O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Recite: 'Say: I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak, from the evil of what He has created...'" Uqbah said: he repeated it to me until I recited it and he came to know that I did not grow so much pleased with it as I should have been. On that he said: "Perhaps you have dealt with it slightly, even though I've never stood (at night for supererogatory prayer) with the like of it (in significance)."

5444- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he asked The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” about the (excellence of) both Surahs of seeking refuge (with Allah). He said: Thereupon The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” led the Morning prayer with them (in order to show him that both stand in the same position as the long Surahs do in the prayer).

5445- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” led the Morning prayer with both (Surahs of seeking refuge with Allah).

5446- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was leading the riding mount of The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” on journey, The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to me: "O Uqbah! Should I not teach you the best two Surahs to be recited (in the Qur'an)?" he taught me: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." But he did not see that I had grown so much pleased with them (as I should have been). When he descended to offer the Morning prayer, he led the Morning prayer with them. When The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” finished from the prayer he turned to me and said: "O Uqbah! How have you come to feel?"

5447- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was driving the riding mount of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" in one of those roads, he said to me: "Would you not ride (for some time) O Uqbah?" I regarded The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" too supreme for me to ride his riding mount (and let him walk on foot, and thus I rejected). He asked me once again: "Would you not ride O Uqbah?" I feared it (my rejection) might be regarded as disobedience, so (I agreed and) he descended and I rode for a while and then I descended and The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" rode for a while. Then he said to me: "Should I not teach you the best Surahs which the people recite?" he made me recite: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." Then the prayer was established, and he moved forward (to lead the prayer in which he) recited them. Then he came upon me and said: "How have you come to feel O Uqbah Ibn Amir? Recite them whenever you go to bed and get up (from your sleep)."

5448- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: While I was walking in the company of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" he said to me: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he kept silent from me for a while after which he said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he kept silent from me (for a while during which) I said (to myself): "O Allah! Make him repeat that to me." He said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'." I recited it until I came to its end. He said: "O Uqbah! Say!" I asked: "What should I say O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." I recited it until I came to its end. At that point The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Of a surety, none has ever asked (Allah for anything) with the like of both, nor has a seeker of refuge sought refuge (from evil) with the like of them (before)."

5449- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir that he said: I went to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was riding and I placed my hand on his foot and said: "Teach me how to recite the Surah of Hud! Teach me how to recite the Surah of Yusuf!" on that he said: "You will never recite anything, much grater (as far as seeking refuge with Allah is concerned) in the Sight of Allah Almighty than (the Surah in which He says) "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'.""

5447 - أَخْبَرَنِي مُحَمَّدُ بْنُ خَالِدٍ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا الْوَلِيدُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنِي أَبُو جَابِرٍ عَنِ الْقَاسِمِ أَبِي عَبْدِ الرَّحْمَنِ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ: بَيْنَا أَقُودُ بِرَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ فِي نَقَبٍ مِنْ تِلْكَ النَّقَابِ إِذْ قَالَ: «أَلَا تَرْكَبُ يَا عُقْبَةُ؟» فَأَجَلَلْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ أَنْ أَرْكَبَ مَرْكَبَ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ ﷺ ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلَا تَرْكَبُ يَا عُقْبَةُ؟» فَأَشْفَقْتُ أَنْ يَكُونَ مَعْصِيَةً فَنَزَلَ وَرَكِبْتُ هُنَيْهَةً وَنَزَلَتْ وَرَكِبَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ ثُمَّ قَالَ: «أَلَا أُعَلِّمُكَ سُورَتَيْنِ مِنْ خَيْرِ سُورَتَيْنِ قَرَأَ بِهِمَا النَّاسُ؟»، فَأَقْرَأَنِي قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ وَقُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ النَّاسِ فَأُقِيمَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَتَقَدَّمَ فَقَرَأَ بِهِمَا ثُمَّ مَرَّ بِي فَقَالَ: «كَيْفَ رَأَيْتَ يَا عُقْبَةُ بْنُ عَامِرٍ؟ أَقْرَأَ بِهِمَا كُلَّمَا نِمْتَ وَفُتِمْتَ».

5449 - أَخْبَرَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ قَالَ: حَدَّثَنَا اللَّيْثُ عَنْ يَزِيدَ بْنِ أَبِي حَبِيبٍ عَنْ أَبِي عِمْرَانَ أَسْلَمَ عَنْ عُقْبَةَ بْنِ عَامِرٍ قَالَ: أَتَيْتُ رَسُولَ اللَّهِ ﷺ وَهُوَ رَاكِبٌ فَوَضَعْتُ يَدِي عَلَى قَدَمِهِ فَقُلْتُ: أَقْرِئْنِي سُورَةَ هُودٍ أَقْرِئْنِي سُورَةَ يُوسُفَ فَقَالَ: «لَنْ تَقْرَأَ شَيْئًا أَبْلَغَ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ مِنْ قُلْ أَعُوذُ بِرَبِّ الْفَلَقِ».

5450- It is narrated on the authority of Uqbah Ibn Amir from The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” that he said: "Many Holy Verses were revealed to me, the like of which has never been seen before: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" up to the end of the Surah, and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'.""

5451- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir Ibn Abdullah that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” said to me: "Recite O Jabir!" I said: "What should I recite, let my father and mother sacrifice their lives for you, O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Recite: "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Daybreak'" and "Say: 'I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of Mankind'." I recited them and then he said to me: "Recite them (regularly) and you will never recite the like of them."

[2] Seeking Refuge From Having A Heart Which Never Submits

5452- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Amr that he said: The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” used to seek refuge with Allah from four things: from having knowledge that is of no benefit, from having a heart which is not submissive (to Allah in service), from (supplicating with) an invocation which is not heard (and thus it is not responded to by Allah), and from having a soul which is not satisfied (with what is given to it)."

[3] Seeking Refuge From The Affliction Of The Breast

5453- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” used to seek refuge (with Allah) from being given to cowardice, niggardliness, the affliction of the breast, and the punishment of the grave.

[4] Seeking Refuge From The Evil Of Hearing And Seeing

5454- It is narrated on the authority of Shakal Ibn Humaid that he said: I went to The Messenger of Allah “Allah’s blessing and peace be upon him” and said: "O Messenger of Allah! Teach me how to seek refuge (with Allah)." He took hold of my hand and said: "O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the evil of my hearing, the evil of my seeing, the evil of my tongue, the evil of my heart, and from the evil of my semen." (He kept saying it) until I retained it in memory.

[5] Seeking Refuge From Cowardice

(52) THE BOOK OF DRINKS

[1] The Prohibition Of Wine

Allah Almighty says: " O you who believe! intoxicants and gambling, (dedication of) stones, and (divination by) arrows, are an abomination of Satan's handiwork: eschew such (abomination), that you may prosper. Satan's plan is (but) to excite enmity and hatred between you, with intoxicants and gambling, and hinder you from the remembrance of Allah, and from prayer: will you not then abstain?" (Al-Ma'idah 90:91)

5550- It is narrated on the authority of Umar that (a short time before) wine was prohibited, Umar said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" so, this Verse in the Surah of Al-Baqarah was revealed: "They ask you concerning wine and gambling. Say in them is great sin..." then, Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, but he said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" then, the Verse pertaining to that in the Surah of Women was revealed: "O you who believe! Approach not Prayers with a mind befogged, until you can understand all that you say..." (43) whenever the caller of the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" to prayer pronounced the prayer establishment, he would say: "Behold! Let none who is intoxicated approach the prayer!" then, Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, but he said: "O Allah! Would that You give us a clear decisive statement concerning the (prohibition of) wine!" then, the Verse pertaining to that in the Surah of Repast was revealed, and Umar was called and the Verse was recited to him, and when he came to His saying: "will you not then abstain?" Umar said: "No doubt, we've abstained!"

[2] The Drink That Was Spilled Away Once The Prohibition Of Wine Was Revealed

5551- It is narrated on the authority of Anas Ibn Malik that he said: While I was standing amongst the uncles of my tribe serving them and I was the youngest of them, a person came and said: "Verily the wine has been prohibited." I was serving them with (the wine prepared from dry dates called) Fadikh They said: "O Anas! Spill it away." So I spilt it. Sulaiman At-Taimi (a sub-narrator) said that he asked Anas what that (Fadikh) was. He said: It was prepared from unripe stiff dates and dry dates. Abu Bakr Ibn Anas said: It was their wine during those days. Sulaiman said: A person narrated to me from Anas Ibn Malik that he did not refute that statement.

I also had forbidden you to eat the meat of sacrifice (beyond three days), and now, you might save out of the meat of sacrifice as much as it seems to you. Furthermore, I had forbidden you to brew fruits but in a water-skin, but now you might drink (such of drinks as whose fruits are brewed in any utensil) and safeguard yourselves from any intoxicant."

5664- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Buraidah from his father that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I had forbidden you to do three things: I had forbidden you to visit the graves, but now you might visit them (if you so like) perchance this will increase you in good. I also had forbidden you to eat the meat of sacrifice (beyond three days), and now, you might eat of the meat of sacrifice as much as you

5666- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Buraidah from his father that he said: While The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was on his way, he alighted near a people and he heard them making noise. He asked: "What is the source of this noise?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! Those (people) brew fruits whose drink they get (and it is that which causes this noise)." He sent somebody to invite them, and (when they came) he asked them: "In which vessels do you brew fruits?" they said: "We do that in the hollow stump of date-palm trees and the dry gourd, and we have no receptacles." He said to them: "Then, drink not but in such (of leather containers as) you tie up its mouth." He spent as long as Allah willed him to spend after which he came back to them and found them having been befallen by severe illness and their faces turned yellow. He asked them: "What is the reason that I see you have been (about to be) destroyed?" they said: "O Messenger of Allah! Our land is infected and you have forbidden us to drink but in such (of leather containers as) are tied up." On that he said: "Then drink (in such of vessels as you like putting in consideration that) every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful."

We have no containers (to brew fruits in them)." The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "It is not then."

[41] The Position Of Wine

5668- it is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Two vessels of wine and milk were brought to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" on the very night he was made to set out on his Night Journey, and he caught a glimpse of both and then he took the vessel of milk. On that Gabriel said to him: "Praise be to Allah Who has guided you to the true nature (on which man is created). Had you taken the (vessel of) wine, your nation would have gone astray."

5669- it is narrated on the authority of Ibn Muhairiz from one of the companions of The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Some of my nation will drink wine, giving it a name other than its real name."

[42] The Severe Warning Of Drinking Wine

5670- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he commits adultery. The thief is not to be a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine. And the robber is not to be a believer at the time he robs anything, because of which the people raise their eyes to him."

5671- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "The adulterer is not to be a (completely) believer at the time he commits adultery. The thief is not to be a believer at the time he steals. The drunk is not to be a believer at the time he drinks wine. And the robber is not to be a believer at the time he robs a valuable thing, because of which the Muslims raise their sights to him."

5672- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar and many from amongst the companions of Muhammad, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one drinks wine, lash him; and if he drinks it once again, lash him, and if he drinks it (for the third time) lash him, and if he drinks it (for the fourth time) then kill him."

5673- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "If one becomes drunk, lash him; and if he becomes drunk once again, lash him, and if he becomes intoxicated (for the third time) lash him, and if he becomes drunk (for the fourth time) then chop off his head."

5674- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Burdah Ibn Abu Musa from his father that he used to say: It is the same to me to drink wine or (become a pagan and) worship this pillar apart from Allah. (That is for the wine had, in his sight, the same position as paganism had).

[43] What About The Prayer Of The Drunk?

Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" mentioning anything relating to wine? He said: Yes: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "NO one of my nation drinks wine but that Allah Almighty will not accept prayer from him for forty nights."

5676- It is narrated on the authority of Masruq that he said: If a judge devours a gift (from one of the opponents), he will have eaten something forbidden; and if he accepts bribe, he will have attained infidelity. He further said: If one drinks wine, he will have become an infidel; and his infidelity means there is no prayer (to be accepted) from him.

[44] The Sins Resulting From Drinking Wine

5677- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman that he said: Avoid drinking wine for indeed it is the mother of impurities. There was a worshipper from those who were before you, and a prostitute was attached to him. She sent her slave-girl to him with the message that 'we invite you for martyrdom'. He went with her slave-girl and whenever he entered a place she closed the door behind him, until he entered upon a charming woman having a boy and a vessel of wine. She said to him: "I, by Allah, have not invited you for martyrdom. But I've invited you to have sexual relation with me, or to have a cup of this wine, or to kill this boy." He said: "Then, (if there is no way to flee from that) give me a cup of this wine." When she gave him a cup he asked for more, and he did not leave (the place) until he had sexual relation with her and killed the soul (of the boy). So, you should eschew drinking wine, for by Allah, never do wine addiction and faith (in Allah) gather but that one of both is about to prevail over the other.

5678- It is narrated on the authority of Uthman that he said: Avoid drinking wine for indeed it is the mother of impurities. There was a worshipper from those who were before you, and he isolated himself from the people (to be devoted to the service of Allah)...So, you must eschew drinking wine, for by Allah, never do wine and faith (in Allah) gather but that one of both is about to prevail over the other.

5679- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Whoever drinks wine, even though he does not become intoxicated, no prayer is accepted from him as long as there is something of it inside his abdomen or veins, and if he dies (while being as such) he will have died as an infidel; and if he becomes intoxicated, no prayer will be accepted

5676 - أَخْبَرَنَا قُتَيْبَةُ وَعَلِيُّ بْنُ حُجْرٍ قَالَا: حَدَّثَنَا خَلْفٌ يَعْنِي ابْنَ خَلِيفَةَ عَنْ مَنْصُورِ بْنِ زَادَانَ عَنِ الْحَكَمِ بْنِ عُتَيْبَةَ عَنْ أَبِي وَائِلٍ عَنْ مَسْرُوقٍ قَالَ: الْقَاضِي إِذَا أَكَلَ الْهَدِيَّةَ فَقَدْ أَكَلَ السُّحْتَ وَإِذَا قَبِلَ الرِّشْوَةَ بَلَغَتْ بِهِ الْكُفْرَ. وَقَالَ مَسْرُوقٌ: مَنْ شَرِبَ الْخَمْرَ فَقَدْ كَفَرَ وَكُفْرُهُ أَنْ لَيْسَ لَهُ صَلَاةٌ.

He said: I heard The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "Whoever has even a sip of wine, no repentance will be accepted from him for forty days, and if he repents (after that) Allah will turn to him in repentance; and if he returns (to drink it once again) his repentance will not be accepted from him for forty days, and if he repents (after that) Allah will turn to him in repentance; and if he returns (to drinking it for the third time) Allah will have the right to make him drink from Tinat Al-Khabal (the drink of the denizens of the fire of Hell) on the Day of Judgement."

5682- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "He who drinks wine in the world and does not give up drinking it (before he dies) it will be forbidden to him in the hereafter."

confusion because of that." He made a mention of many kinds of drinks to the extent that I thought he had not understood him. On that Ibn Abbas said: "You've mentioned a lot of drinks: eschew what is intoxicant of drinks prepared from dates, raisins, or anything else."

5701- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Abbas that he said: The brew of unripe hard dates (that is prepared in the forbidden vessels) is unlawful, even though it is not mixed with anything else.

5702- it is narrated on the authority of Abu Jamrah that he said: I was acting as an interpreter between Ibn Abbas and the people, when a woman came to ask him about what is brewed in the coloured jar, and he forbade it to her. I said to him: "O Ibn Abbas! I brew fruits in a green-coloured jar, and when I drink it, it causes my abdomen to crackle." He said: "Drink not from it even though it is much sweeter than honey."

5703- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Jamrah that he said: I said to Ibn Abbas: My grandmother brews fruits in a coloured jar, and I drink from it since it is sweet, but if I get more of it and sit among the people, I fear I might be put to shame (lest the signs of intoxication would be visible on me). He said: The delegate of Abd Al-Qais came to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" who said to them: "Welcome! O people of Abd Al-Qais! Neither will you have disgrace nor will you regret." They said: "O Allah's Apostle! We cannot come to you except in the sacred months since there are the pagans intervening between you and us. So please order us to do something good (concerning religion) by which we may enter the Garden, and of which we may inform our people whom we have left behind." The Prophet "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "I order you to do three things and forbid you (to use) four things. I order you to believe in Allah Alone: do you know what the faith in Allah is?" they said: "Allah and His Messenger know best." He said: "It is to testify that there is no god (to be worshipped) but Allah and that Muhammad is Allah's Apostle; to offer prayers perfectly; to pay the obligatory charity; and to pay one fifth of the booty to be given for Allah's sake. Then I forbid you to do four things, i.e. to drink what is brewed in dry gourd, green-coloured jar, hollow stump of palm-trees, and pitcher."

5704- It is narrated on the authority of Qais Ibn Wahban that he said: I said to Ibn Abbas: I have a small coloured jar, in which I brew fruits, and when it has boiled and calmed down I drink it. He said: How long have you been getting such a drink? I said: I've been drinking it for twenty or forty years. On that he said: Then, your veins have long been quenched by that impurity!

5704 - أَخْبَرَنَا سُوَيْدٌ قَالَ: أَنْبَأَنَا عَبْدُ اللَّهِ عَنْ سُلَيْمَانَ التَّيْمِيِّ عَنْ قَيْسِ بْنِ وَهْبَانَ قَالَ: سَأَلْتُ ابْنَ عَبَّاسٍ قُلْتُ: إِنَّ لِي جُرَيْرَةً أَتَنَبِّذُ فِيهَا حَتَّى إِذَا عَلَى وَسَكَنَ شَرِبْتُهِ قَالَ: مُذْ كَمْ هَذَا شَرَابُكَ؟ قُلْتُ: مُذْ عِشْرُونَ سَنَةً أَوْ قَالَ: مُذْ أَرْبَعُونَ سَنَةً قَالَ: طَالَمَا تَرَوْتُ عُرُوقَكَ مِنَ الْخَبَثِ.

However, they depended upon the narration of Abd Al-Malik Ibn Nafi' which he related from Abdullah Ibn Umar.

5705- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Umar that he said: A man brought a vessel full of brew to The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" while he was sitting near the Corner (of the House). He gave the vessel to him. When he lifted the vessel to his mouth, he found it too intense (and strong to drink) thereupon he gave it back to its owner. A man from among the present people said: "Is it unlawful O Messenger of Allah?" he said: "Bring me the man!" when he was brought to him he took the vessel from him, and asked for water, which he poured in it and lifted it to his mouth but (since it was still intense and strong) he frowned. He asked for more water and poured it in the vessel, and said: "If (the contents of) those vessels become too intense and strong for you (to drink out of boiling), then dilute the intensity with water."

5706- The same is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar from The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him". Abu Abd Ar-Rahman thinks that those two narrations are false.

5707- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that a man asked him about drinks, thereupon he said: Eschew such of drinks as has boiled.

5708- It is narrated on the authority of Zaid Ibn Jubair that he said: I asked Ibn Umar about drinks, thereupon he said: Eschew such of drinks as has boiled (and become too strong to drink).

5709- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Such (of drinks as) intoxicant is unlawful, no matter little or much it might be.

5710- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that he said: Every intoxicant (of drinks) is wine, and every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful.

5712- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Umar that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "No doubt, Every intoxicant (of drinks) is wine, and every intoxicant (of drinks) is unlawful." Abu Abd Ar-Rahman says that those four narrations are more right and their chains of transmission are more reliable.

5713- It is narrated on the authority of Ruqayyah Bint Amr Ibn Sa'id that she said: I was under the guardianship of Ibn Umar, and it was his habit that raisins would be soaked for him (in the water) in order that he would drink its juice in the coming morning, and then it would be dried and another quantity of raisins would be added to that, and soaked in the water in order that he would drink the resulting juice in the next morning. But in the third morning, he would throw that away. However, they depended upon the narration of Abu Mas'ud: Uqbah Ibn Amr.

5714- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Mas'ud that he said: Once, The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" became thirsty and he was (in the area) surrounding the Ka'bah. He asked for water and a water-skin full of brew was brought to him, and when he smelled it he frowned (since he found it too intense and strong to drink out of fermentation). He said: "Bring me a bucket full of water of Zamzam." He poured water over it and then drank from it. A man asked: "Is it unlawful O Messenger of Allah?" he answered in the negative. (This narration is weak).

5715- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Hurairah that he said: I came to know that The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" was fasting on one of those days on which he used to observe fasts. So I sought for the time of breaking his fast to give him a fruit brew which I prepared for him in a dry gourd. When it was evening I came to him carrying that drink and I said to him: "O Messenger of Allah! I have come to know that you are fasting this day, so I sought for the time of breaking your fast to give you this brew." He said: "Bring it close (to me) O Abu Hurairah." I brought it close to him and behold! It was boiling (out of fermentation). He said: "Take and spill that over the wall for this is the drink of such as has no faith in Allah nor in the Last Day." They depended also upon the act of Umar Ibn Al-Khattab.

5716- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Rafi' that Umar Ibn Al-Khattab said: If you fear that a drink might become intense (because of fermentation) then, dilute it with water before it becomes intense.

5717- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Al-Musayyab that he said: The (people of) Tha'qif received Umar (Ibn Al-Khattab) with a drink and when he got it and brought it close to his mouth he disliked it (for its intensity). He asked for it and diluted it with water and said: As such you might do.

5718- It is narrated on the authority of Utbah Ibn Farqad that he said: The fruit brew which Umar Ibn Al-Khattab drank was soused; and this is shown in the narration of As-Sa'ib.

However, Umar Ibn Al-Khattab gave him the lashes of the legal punishment in full.

[49] What About Humiliation And Punishment Prepared By Allah For The Intoxicant Drinker

5720- It is narrated on the authority of Jabir that he said that a person came from Jaishan, a town in Yemen, and asked The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" about the wine which was drunk in their land prepared from millet and was called Mizr. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" asked: "Is it intoxicating?" He answered in the affirmative. The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" said: "Every intoxicant is unlawful. Verily Allah "Exalted and Hallowed be He" has pledged to those who drink intoxicants that He would make their drink (in the hereafter) Tinat Al-Khabal." They said: "O Messenger of Allah! What is Tinat Al-Khabal?" He said: "It is the sweat of the dwellers of the fire (of Hell) or the discharge of the denizens of the fire (of Hell)."

[50] Exhortation To Leave What Is Suspicious

5721- It is narrated on the authority of An-Nu'man Ibn Bashir that he said: I heard Allah's Apostle "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" having said: "What is legal is clearly evident, and what is illegal is clearly evident, and in between them there are doubtful matters (of which lots of people have no knowledge); and let me set forth an example to you for that: Verily, Allah Almighty has made a protected zone, and indeed, Allah's protected zone is what He Almighty has forbidden; and whoever pastures animals round the protected zone is about to mix with it; and whoever mixes with what is suspicious is about to dare (to do what is unlawful)."

5722- It is narrated on the authority of Abu Al-Hawra' As-Sa'di that he said: I said to Al-Hasan Ibn Ali: What have you kept (by heart) from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him"? he said: I've kept from the Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" his statement: "Leave that which arouses suspicion in you (and you are uncertain whether it is lawful or unlawful and stick) to that which does not arouse suspicion in you (since it is evidently clear)."

[51] It Is Undesirable To Sell Raisins To Such As Prepares Wine From That

5723- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Tawus from his father that he disliked to sell the raisins to such as would prepare wine from that.

[52] It Is Undesirable To Sell The Compressed Grapes

5724- It is narrated on the authority of Mus'ab Ibn Sa'd that he said: Sa'd had a ranch having multitudes of plants and vines, and there was a caretaker appointed by him there. One year it yielded a great deal of grapes and he sent a letter to him in which he said: "I'm afraid the grapes might be vulnerable to damage. So, if you see it better to compress that, I would compress that (and sell the juice of compressed grapes)." Sa'd sent to him in reply saying: "When you receive this letter of mine, you should retire from working in my ranch at once, for by Allah, I will never entrust anything to you after that."

5725- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Sirin that he said: You might sell the compress grapes to such as prepares juice from that, and not to such as makes wine from that.

5727- It is narrated on the authority of Amir Ibn Abdullah that he said: I read the letter sent by Umar to Abu Musa in which he said: "To go further: a caravan from Sham has come to me, carrying a thick black drink, like the tar of camels, and I asked them about the quantity (which they let evaporate) on cooking its (fruits), and they told me that they cook its (fruits) and let two thirds evaporate, i.e. the two thirds which are impure fade away, one for its intensity (which leads to intoxication), and the other for its bad smell (and thus only one third, which tastes good remains). So, order those who are with you to drink it (if they so like)."

5728- It is narrated on the authority of Abdullah Ibn Yazid Al-Khatmi that he said: Umar Ibn Al-Khattab sent a letter to us in which he said: "To go further: cook (the fruits of) your drink (of grapes and let it boil) until the portion of Satan fades away, for indeed, Satan's portion is two times yours."

[58] What About The Permissible Drinks?

5764- It is narrated on the authority of Anas that he said: Umm Sulaim had a vessel made of wood sticks, in connection with which she said: I made The Messenger of Allah "Allah's blessing and peace be upon him" drink in it all drinks such as water, honey, milk and fruit brew.

5765- It is narrated on the authority of Sa'id Ibn Abd Ar-Rahman Ibn Abza from his father that he said: I asked Ubai about the fruit brew and he said: "Drink water, drink honey, drink Sawiq, and drink the milk therewith you were fed (while you were a young child)." I asked him once again and he said: "Do you mean wine? Do you mean wine?"

5766- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Mas'ud that he said: "The people have innovated so many drinks and I do not know what they are. Along twenty or forty years, I have no drink other than water and Sawiq." However, no mention was made by him of the fruit brew.

5767- It is narrated on the authority of Abidah that he said: "The people have innovated so many drinks and I do not know what they are. Along twenty years, I have no drink other than water, milk and honey."

5768- It is narrated on the authority of Ibn Shubrumah that he said: Talhah said to the people of Kufah: "There is affliction in the fruit brew, in which the young would grow strong, and the man would grow very old." Whenever there was a wedding party among the people, both Talhah and Zubair would provide people with milk and honey. It was said to Talhah: "Would you not provide fruit brew?" he said: "I dislike that a Muslim might get intoxicated because of me."

5769- it is narrated on the authority of Jarir that he said: It was the habit of Ibn Shubrumah to drink (from among the drinks) only water and milk.
